

FORWARD

Village has been the basic unit of administration and instrument of development of Indian Society since ancient times, the institute of “Panchayat” being an integral part of self-governance at grass-root level. The institution of “Panchayat” has its traces in the vedic times also and in Rig Veda, there is mention of structural pattern of Aryan Society as divided into Families, Janmanas (villages), Visas (blocks) and Janas (several Visas together). Though with the passage of time, the nature, character and role of self government had changed, but there had been consistency in the need of performance of its vital functions; such as internal security, vigilance, public works, collection of taxes etc. throughout the administration of ancient and medieval villages.

The systematic development of electoral process in the context of local bodies took place in India only after the historic “Lord Ripon’s Resolution of 1882 on Local Self Government”, which made it clear that it was not primarily with a view to bring improvements in Administration that the measure was put forward and supported, but it was chiefly designed as an instrument of political and popular education. Political education was thought to be the primary function of the Local Government and it was of greater importance than the administrative efficiency. The Resolution emphasized that Rural Boards should be set up on the same lines as the Municipal Boards and the unit of administration should be small i.e. the Sub-division, Tehsil or Taluka. As a follow up of the Resolution, a two-tier system approach i.e. District boards and Sub-division or the Tehsil boards was adopted, with one half of the members being elected and one half being nominated by the Government. The major source of income of such boards remained the land revenue cess and also income from tolls on roads and ferries, government grants, fees and the voluntary contributions of the landlords and merchants for the endowment of dispensaries, schools etc.

The other significant development in the history of local bodies in India is the report of the “Royal Commission on Decentralization (1907-1909)”. The Royal Commission dealt separately with the village organization, rural bodies and municipal boards emphasized to associate the people in the administration at the village level. The Commission recommended that the village headman should become Sarpanches (Leader) and the other members should be informally elected. The functions purposed to be assigned to the rural bodies included petty civil and criminal jurisdiction, sanitation, construction of minor public works, building and management of village schools. The Royal Commission also recommended that the Taluka and Tehsil Boards be established and the District Magistrate should continue to be the President of the District board. However, for the Municipal board it was emphasized that a non-official should be elected its Chairman and Committees should be set up to take over the routine supervision of district services. Later on “the Montagu-Chelmsford Report” was issued in July 1918 which envisaged that all fundamental changes in law relating to the local government should be left to the Provincial Legislative Councils and representation to the minorities in the local boards should be provided through election.

After independence of the Country and adoption of the Constitution of India on 26th January, 1950, a new chapter in the history of local government in the country was introduced. Article 40 of the Constitution (under Part-IV, Directive Principles of State Policy) provides that the State shall take steps to organize Village Panchayats and endow them with such powers as may be necessary to enable them to function as units of Self-government. In pursuance of this Constitutional provision, the State Governments enacted laws for setting up the Village Panchayats in the Villages and Intermediate and District Panchayats at the Taluka and District level. But the functioning of most of these Panchayats at all levels had not been impressive and many shortcomings and defects were noticed in their functioning. Though the Panchayats existed for a long period yet they could not acquire the dignity and credibility of being true representative bodies of the rural population. Regular elections of the Panchayats were not held and many Panchayats were superseded for long periods. Adequate representations of Women and persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other weaker sections were not provided in these Panchayats. The required financial resources were also not available to them and no real administrative and financial powers were delegated to them. In view of many defects and shortcomings in functioning of the Panchayati Raj Institutions, the "Panchayats" were not able to live up to the expectations and aspirations of the, people as well as of the founding fathers of our Constitution.

In pursuance of the provisions contained in Article 40 of the Constitution of India, the Punjab Gram Panchayat Act,1952 (Punjab Act No.4 of 1953) and the Punjab Panchayat Samitis Act, 1961 (Punjab Act No.3 of 1961) were enacted for this purpose. After the bifurcation of Punjab State and the creation of Haryana State, these two Acts were made applicable to Haryana, also. Under the Punjab Gram Panchayat Act,1952, Gram Sabhas and Gram Panchayats in every village or group of villages having the population of five hundred or more were established throughout the State for taking self-government to the door steps of the people. Every adult in the village became ipso-facto a member of the Gram Sabha and thus a voter for electing Members and Sarpanches of the Gram Panchayats and Members of Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads. A large number of functions were devolved on the Panchayats and there was great enthusiasm among the people. In the initial years, the Panchayats did commendable work in constructing village roads, drinking water wells, village ponds, primary schools buildings etc. A very ambitious programme known as "Community Development (CD) programme" was launched in the country in the year 1952 with very high hopes for which Country was divided into 5000 CD blocks. At the block level, a team of subject matter specialists headed by a generalist known as the Block Development Officer (BDO) was appointed and during the initial stages of the programme, substantial financial assistance was also made available for various development activities in the rural areas. The working of CD programme was evaluated by a study team popularly known as "the Balwant Rai Mehta Committee", which recommended to set up self government institutions at block level to be elected by indirect election from the village Panchayats and co-opting some members of the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes, local persons having experience in administration, public life or rural development and Women members. The Mehta Committee also recommended that the Village Panchayat should be directly elected with special provisions for representation of the Women, the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in them. For the third tier at the district level, the team suggested three types of arrangements (purely coordinating body, main executive body or a mix of both) depending upon the role, powers and functions assigned to the lower level tiers by the concerned State Governments. Following the recommendations of the Mehta Committee Report, in the subsequent years almost every State established some sort of Panchayati Raj set-up and some of the States like Maharashtra and Gujrat implemented the recommendations with great enthusiasm.

In the mid sixties, the decline of Panchayati Raj Institutions started and continued almost for two decades because during that period, the flow of funds for the development of blocks reduced considerably and non-devolution of the sources of revenue proved to be the greatest stumbling block in the performance of Panchayati Raj bodies. In many states, the elections to the Panchayati Raj Institutions were indefinitely postponed and parallel bodies were set up at various levels, particularly at the District level for Planning and implementation of various Rural Development and Poverty Alleviation Programmes. At the block level, the Extension Officers were re-assigned to their respective technical departments. The implementation of most of the development programmes were kept out of the purview of Panchayati Raj Institutions and most of such programmes carried their own budget provisions, their separate organizational pattern and their own monitoring mechanism. The cumulative effects of all these developments was that gradually the Panchayati Raj Institutions became non-functional.

In the Eighties, some serious thinking was done at the national level in favour of giving a Constitutional status to the Panchayati Raj Institutions and for this, the initiative was taken up by organizing five workshops of District Magistrates/Collectors in the year 1987 and 1988 at different places in the country on the broad theme of “Responsive Administration”. The workshops made a number of recommendations on various aspects of the administration and recommended that a democratic framework at the local level is a sine-qua-non of a responsive administration. It was recommended that the Panchayati Raj Institutions be constitutionally proclaimed as the Third Tier of the Government and specific mandatory provisions for holding regular elections to these bodies, be made in the Constitution. Reservation of seats for Women, the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes and conducting of elections on party line were also recommended. For devolution of funds from the State Government to the districts (on the model of devolution from Center to the States), it was suggested that the State Finance Commissions be set up.

The Committee under the Chairmanship of Sh.L.M.Singhvi, an eminent constitutional advocate also recommended that the Panchayati Raj Institutions should be constitutionally recognised, protected and preserved by inclusion of a new chapter in the Constitution with provisions to ensure regular, free and fair elections to these Institutions. The Sarkaria Commission on “Center-State Relations” recommended that the elections to the Panchayati Raj Institutions should be held regularly and adequate finances should be devolved upon these institutions and also observed that objective of decentralized planning cannot be achieved unless the Panchayati Raj Institutions are allowed full scope to play their role. Similarly, the Thungon Committee and V.N.Gadgil Committee also recommended that Constitutional status be accorded to the Panchayati Raj Institutions and there should be ‘Three Tier” Panchayati Raj Institutions at village, block and district level, which should have a term of five years and in case of dissolution, elections must take place within six months. The Committee also recommended the reservations in these bodies for Women, the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes and elections be conducted by the Central Election Commission. As a follow up action, the 64th Constitutional Amendment Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha but the same could not be enacted as it was not approved by the Rajya Sabha. The 73rd Amendment bill introduced in Lok Sabha on 7th September, 1990; also unfortunately, lapsed because of the dissolution of the Lok Sabha. With the constituting of next Lok Sabha in the year 1991, the Seventy Third Amendment Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha and was passed on 22nd December, 1992 and on the following day the bill was also passed by the Rajya Sabha. The assent of the President to the bill was accorded on 20th April, 1993 and the Constitutional (Seventy Third Amendment) Act, 1992 came into effect from 24th April, 1993.

Part-IX dealing with “The Panchayats” was inserted in the Constitution by the Constitution (Seventy Third) Amendment Act, 1992 (w.e.f. 22.04.1993).

The Part-IX dealing with ‘the Panchayats’ provides for Gram Sabha, Constitution and Composition of Panchayats, Duration and Elections of Panchayats, Audit of Accounts and Reservation of Seats and Offices of Chairpersons in Panchayats at the Village level, Intermediate level and District level. It also provides for constitution of Finance Commission to review the financial position, power, authority and responsibilities of Panchayats and the powers to impose taxes by the Panchayats. The main features of the provisions in Part-IX of the Constitution are that the Panchayats shall be established at the village level, intermediate level and district level and that the Chairpersons of the Panchayats at village level shall be elected in such a manner as the Legislature of State may by law provides and Chairpersons of Panchayats at intermediate level and district level shall be elected by and from amongst the elected members.

It also provides for reservations of seats for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in every Panchayat and number of seats so reserved shall bear as nearly as may be the same proportion to the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in that Panchayat as the population of the Scheduled Castes in that Panchayat area or of the Scheduled Tribes in that Panchayat area bears to the total population of that area and such seats shall be allotted by rotation to different constituencies in a Panchayat.

It also provides that not less than one third of the total number of seats reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes shall be reserved for Women belonging to Scheduled Castes or as the case may be, the Scheduled Tribes.

It further provides that not less than one third (including the number of seats reserved for women belonging to Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) of the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in every Panchayat shall be reserved for Women and such seats may be allotted by rotation to different constituencies in a Panchayat. So far as the reservation of offices of Chairpersons of the Panchayat at village level or any other level for the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Women is concerned, the Constitution provides that it shall be in such a manner as the Legislature of a State may, by law, provide but the number of offices of Chairpersons reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in the Panchayats at each level in any State shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of such offices in the Panchayats at each level as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the State or of the Scheduled Tribes in the State bears to the total population of the State.

It also provides that not less than one-third of the total number of offices of Chairpersons in the Panchayats at each level shall be reserved for women.

It also provides that every Panchayat, unless sooner dissolved under any law for the time being in force, shall continue for five years from the date appointed for its first meeting and no longer and that election to constitute a Panchayat shall be completed, before expiry of its duration and before the expiration of a period of six months from the date of its dissolution. The most important feature of this chapter is to constitute an independent authority of State Election Commission consisting of a State Election Commissioner to be appointed by the Governor and vesting superintendence, the direction and control of preparation of electoral rolls for, and conduct of, all elections to Panchayats in the Commission.

The Punjab Gram Panchayat Act, 1952 (Punjab Act No.4 of 1953) and the Punjab Panchayat Samiti Act, 1961 (Punjab Act No.3 of 1961) in their application to the State of Haryana were repealed and the new single Act namely the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 was enacted in which all the requisite provisions as envisages in the Constitution's 73rd Amendment Act 1992, were provided.

The State Election Commission in the State of Haryana was constituted vide Government's notification No.SO 101/Const./Art.243K/243ZA/1993 dated 18.11.1993.

The State Election Commission with meager staff made available to it initially, started functioning in the right earnest to fulfill its constitutional obligations for conducting free and fair elections to the Panchayats and Municipalities in the State. The functions of Delimitation of Constituencies and Reservation of Seats and Offices of Chairpersons of the Panchayats have not been assigned to the State Election Commission. It is rather the Government authorities who have been assigned the work of delimitation of constituencies and reservation of seats and offices of the Chairpersons of the rural local bodies. The Commission pursued the matter with the Government for expeditious completion of the work relating to delimitation and reservation of wards so that further steps for conducting the elections to the Panchayats could be initiated.

FIRST PANCHAYAT GENERAL ELECTIONS, 1994

When the First Panchayat General Elections were held in December, 1994, there were 16 Zila Parishads, 110 Panchayat Samitis and 5958 Gram Panchayats in the State. After the total number of the seats in each Gram Panchayat, Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad in the State and reservation of the seats for the Scheduled Castes, Women belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Backward Classes and Women were notified by the State Government vide its notifications dated 25th August, 1994 and 26th August, 1994, the ward wise list of voters of the Panchayats were prepared by the Commission and the programme for elections to the above mentioned Panchayati Raj Institutions was issued to hold the polls in three phases, which were completed successfully.

SECOND PANCHAYAT GENERAL ELECTIONS, 2000

When the Second Panchayat General Elections were due to be held in December, 1999, there were 19 Zila Parishads, 114 Panchayat Samitis and 6035 Gram Panchayats in the State. The lists of voters of the Panchayats were revised which were finally published on 07.06.1999. Since, the list of voters of Ambala district were challenged in a Writ petition filed in the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court and an SLP against the orders of the Hon'ble High Court was filed by the Government in the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, the Second Panchayat General Elections in two phases could be held on 12.03.2000 and 16.03.2000.

The State Election Commission has discharged its constitutional obligations successfully by holding two Panchayat General Elections in the State.

The Commission had prepared and issued the Handbook of instructions for Returning Officers and Presiding Officers and also framed its own Model Code of Conduct. The Commission had also issued “The Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Expenditure (Maintenance and Submissions of Accounts) Order, 1996” and revised the scales of election expenditure from time to time keeping in view the increased cost of election expenses. The Commission had also issued the “Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1996”. Recently, the Commission had issued the “Order for disclosure of information” which was notified vide No.SEC/E-III/2003/8831, dated 06.10.2003 making it mandatory for the candidates in the Municipal and Panchayat elections, including the bye-elections, to disclose information about the cases of criminal offences in which the candidates have been convicted or acquitted and the cases of criminal offences pending against them and also the details about their conviction in the cases of criminal offences and other details relating to the assets and liabilities and educational qualifications of the candidate.

5. Some Irregularities noticed during reservation of seats:- It was noticed that while allocating the reserved seats to different wards of the Gram Panchayats and Panchayat Samitis, nine Sub-Divisional Officers (Civil) in six districts allocated 369 seats of Panches and 3 seats of Members of Panchayat Samitis as reserved for Women belonging to the Backward Classes, despite the fact that there are no provisions in the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 and rules made there under for the reservation of seats for the Women belonging to Backward Classes. Similarly, one seat of Zila Parishad, Jind was reserved for Women belonging to the Backward Classes. The matter was taken up by the Commission with the Government for taking action against these officers for the irregularities committed in this regard.

The reservation of number of seats for Scheduled Castes, Women belonging to Scheduled Castes and Women as notified by the Government vide its notification Nos.E1-99/200 to 218, dated 19.11.1999 in respect of many Gram Panchayats in the State were not taken into account while allocating the reserved seats to different wards of Gram Panchayats and Panchayat Samitis under Rule-5 by most of the Sub-Divisional Officers (Civil) in the State. When the matter was enquired into, it was noticed that the Government notification Nos.E1-99/200 to 218, dated 19.11.1999 did not reach in districts in time and accordingly this notification could not be taken into account by the Sub-Divisional Officers (Civil). The matter was taken up by the Commission for taking action against the concerned District/Sub-Divisional Authorities.

Chapter- 4

LIST OF VOTERS

Provisions in the Act & Rule

1. The provisions relating to the preparation of list of voters for the Panchayat Elections are contained in Section 162 to 169 in Part-V-Chapter XX of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994, which inter-alia provide that every Sabha Area, Block and District shall be divided into Wards (i.e. Electoral Division) and for every Electoral Division, the list of voters shall be prepared and maintained in accordance with provisions of this Act under the superintendence, direction and control of the State Election Commission. It also provides that for every General (Panchayat) election for constitution or re-constitution of the Gram Panchayat, Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad, the voters list for every Electoral Division in respect of above mentioned Panchayati Raj Institutions shall be prepared at any time not later than two months before the expiry of duration of the Gram Panchayat, Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad in the State. It also provides that every person entitled to be registered as voter in the relevant part of the electoral roll of the Assembly under the Representation of People Act, 1950 shall be entitled to be registered as voter in the list of voters for the electoral division. It also provides that electoral rolls of the Assembly prepared under the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 for the time being in force for such part of the constituency of the Assembly as is included in the relevant electoral division, shall subject to any amendment, deletion or addition or any inclusion of any name, be the list of voters for that electoral division. It also provides that the State Election Commission may appoint specify such officers of the Government who shall maintain an upto date list of voters for each electoral division and such list shall be published in the manner as may be prescribed by the State Election Commission. It also provides that any person who has become entitled to be registered as voters in the relevant part of the electoral rolls of the Assembly after the qualifying date may apply to the specified officer for the inclusion of his name in the list of voters and such officer after he is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to be registered in the relevant part of the Assembly electoral rolls direct the name of the applicant to be included in the list of voters. It also provides that no amendment, deletion or addition of any entry in the list of voters of an electoral division shall be made and no directions for inclusion of name shall be given during the period between such date as the Election Commission may, by general or special order, notify in this behalf and the date of completion of any concerned election in the electoral division. The qualifying date has the same meaning as prescribed in the Representation of People Act, 1950. It also provides that list of voters shall come into operation immediately upon its final publication.

2. Since the Assembly electoral rolls do not reflect the Wards Numbers of the Gram Panchayats, Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads and the list of voters for the Panchayat elections are required to be prepared ward-wise as every Ward of a Gram Panchayat is a separate constituency for the purpose of the elections to the Gram Panchayats, the State Election Commission has to get the ward wise list of voters prepared on the basis of Assembly electoral rolls finally published at the time of holding the First General Panchayat Elections. The list of voters of all the wards of a Gram Panchayat becomes the list of voters for the purpose of election to the office of Sarpanch of the Gram Panchayat. Similarly, the list of voters of all the wards of all the Gram Panchayats included in a Ward of a Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad form the list of voters for that ward of the Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad as the case may be. This is a very voluminous and stupendous task for which a very large number of employees and officers from the field officers are deployed. However, with the cooperation of district authorities the list of voters were prepared in time and got printed and the First General Panchayat Elections were held in three phases.

Second Panchayat General Elections-2000

3. For the Second General Panchayat Elections, the programme for the revision of list of voters of the Panchayati Raj Institutions on the basis of draft Assembly electoral rolls preliminary published on 20.04.1999 was issued by the Commission vide its notification No.SEC/E-III/99/3530, dated 8.04.1999. This was done because at that time the existing Assembly rolls finally published on 01.01.1998, were under revision and for which the drafts were preliminary published on 20.04.1999 with 01.01.1999 as the qualifying date. Therefore, instead of taking the Assembly Rolls finally published on 01.01.1998 as the basis for preparation/revision of lists of voters of the Panchayats, the draft Assembly electoral rolls preliminary published on 20.04.1999 was made the basis for the revision of the Panchayat voters lists. And accordingly the Panchayat voters lists were finally published on 07.06.1999, the printing of which was assigned to the printing presses approved by the Commission.

4. The Second General Panchayat Elections in the State were due to be held in the month of December, 1999 and during the period when the printing of voter lists was in progress, a Civil Writ Petition No.12742 of 1999 titled as Surjit Singh and Joginder Singh Versus State of Haryana was filed in the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in the month of August,1999. In this Civil Writ Petition, the Panchayat voters lists of the Gram Panchayats in district Ambala were challenged on the ground that these lists had been prepared on the basis of the draft Assembly Electoral rolls preliminary published on 20.04.1999 and not on the basis of Assembly electoral rolls finally published on 21.07.1999. The petitioners prayed that the voters lists of the Gram Panchayats in Ambala district revised by the State Election Commission on the basis of the draft Assembly Electoral Rolls preliminary published on 20.04.1999 should be quashed and the voters list be prepared afresh on the basis of the Assembly Rolls finally published on 21.07.1999. The Hon'ble Division Bench of the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in their judgement dated 30.09.1999 passed the following orders:-

“Ld. Counsel for the Petitioner as also the Ld. Advocate General, Haryana representing, Respondents No.1 and 3 have stated that in the facts and circumstances of the case, it would be appropriate that the voters lists finalised for the Panchayat/Municipal elections is revised on the basis of Assembly electoral rolls finally published on 21.07.1999 and that the same be prepared after affording an opportunity to all the eligible voters after following the prescribed procedure. This petition is thus disposed of with the directions that Respondent No.2 represented by Mr. Rajan Gupta, Advocate shall prepare the electoral rolls in the manner indicated above before June,2000.

5. A review application against the above orders of the Hon'ble High Court in the form of a CM No.25598 of 1999 in CWP No.12742 of 1999 was filed by six petitioners including two MLAs for impleading them as respondent in the above said Civil Writ Petition and also saying that elections of Gram Panchayats, Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishad in the State which were due to be held in December, 1999, the same would be deferred, if the voters lists were to be prepared afresh in compliance of the Hon'ble High Court's order dated 30.09.1999 and that would result in non-compliance of the provisions of the Constitution to complete the elections of the Panchayats before the expiry of their duration, which would expire in December, 1999. The Hon'ble High Court in its interim Orders dated 03.12.1999 impleaded the applicants as parties and disposed of the Civil Writ Petition No.12488 and 16994 of 1999 (pertaining to Gram Panchayats, Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads) and No.17359 of 1999 (pertaining to Municipalities) and directed that the elections to these bodies (except for 92 Panchayats and 22 Municipal Councils and Municipal Committees) should be held positively by the end of February, 2000. The Hon'ble Court also observed that the Advocate General Haryana and Counsel of the Commission conceded that the Order dated 30.09.1999 had been made in ignorance of the constitutional provisions contained in Part IX and IX-A and the Panchayati Raj Act and Municipal Act and the Order had in fact by implication, nullified a Constitutional and statutory mandate. The Hon'ble Court also held that it is for the State Election Commission to decide the electoral rolls on the basis of which the elections are to be held.

6. An SLP against the Hon'ble High Court's orders dated 27.12.1999 was filed by the State Government in the Supreme Court of India. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India disposed of the SLP No.772-773 of 2000 and passed the following orders:-

“Leave granted in all the appeals.

Learned counsel for the parties are present before us and they waive notice. This order shall dispose of all the aforesaid appeals.

The controversy in these appeals, which have put in issue the judgement and order of the High Court dated 27th December, 1999 and the order dated 21st January, 2000 made in Review Application resolves around the holding of the elections to the Municipal Councils, Municipal Committees and Municipal Corporation, Faridabad as also to the Gram Panchayats, Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads.

In view of the developments, which have taken place in this Court and the additional affidavit which has been filed in response to the direction given to the State by Shri Hardeep Kumar, Joint Secretary-cum-Director, Development and Panchayats Department, Haryana, we are relieved of the necessity to trace the history of the litigation. Suffice it to notice that the High Court through the impugned orders directed the State Government and the State Election Commission to hold elections to the Gram Panchayats, Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads as well as the Municipalities etc. by the end of February, 2000, except for those Municipalities etc. which were left out in the order of the High Court itself.

Mr. Sarin, Advocate General, appearing for the State, submits that because of the Assembly elections which have been necessitated on account of the dissolution of the Assembly and the polling for which is scheduled to taken place on 22nd February, 2000, it is not possible for the State or the State Election Commission to hold the elections to the Panchayat Samitis etc. by the end of February, 2000, as directed by the High Court and that some more time is required for the purpose. Mr. Harbhagwan Singh, learned senior counsel appearing for the respondents submits that the State has been dragging its feet and not holding the elections without any justification.

We quite appreciate the difficulty expressed by the State in view of the forthcoming Assembly elections. The State Election Commission as well as the State of Haryana have, in response to directions issued by this court, submitted a tentative time schedule for holding of the elections to the Municipal Councils and Panchayat Samitis etc. alongwith the affidavit of Shri Hardeep Kumar. We have perused the same. We are of the considered opinion that the democratic process of election should not be postponed unduly and though the State should be given some more time to complete the election process, the time suggested in the schedule is not reasonable.

We, therefore, with the consent of learned counsel for all the parties, direct that the State and the State Election Commission shall hold elections to the Gram Panchayats etc. and complete the process of holding elections, wherever poll is required to be held, on or before 31st March, 2000. The State and the State Election Commission shall also hold elections to the Municipal Councils etc. and complete the process by holding the polls, wherever required, by the 7th of April, 2000.

The State as well as the State Election Commission shall accordingly take all appropriate preparatory steps connected with the holding of the elections like issuance of notification etc., accordingly so that the polls, wherever necessary, are held by 31st April, 2000 in the case of Municipalities etc. The learned Advocate General appearing for the State of Haryana and Mr. Ravinder Bana, learned counsel appearing for the State Election Commission assure us that the needful shall be done by the dates as given by us.

The impugned order of the High Court to that extent shall, therefore, stand modified.

We clarify that we have not expressed any opinion with regard to the alleged strictures passed against the State or its officials and it is open to the concerned party to approach the High Court for expunging of such remarks and the High Court shall decide those applications, if made, so uninfluenced by the order made by us today.

We are informed that some contempt proceedings have also been initiated by the High Court arising out of the impugned orders. Those proceedings may be decided by the High Court, keeping in view the consent order made by us today.

With the above modification of the impugned and the directions, all the appeals are disposed of. The parties shall, however, bear their own costs insofar as these appeals are concerned.

7. Thereafter in view of reply filed by the State Election Commissioner to the Show Cause Notice before the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in CM No.25598 of 1999 in CWP No.12742 of 1999, the Hon'ble High Court vide its Orders dated 15.02.2000 dropped the Contempt proceedings.

8. Since the matter remained pending with the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court and later on with the Apex Court and in the mean time one more revision of the Assembly electoral rolls had taken place with 01.01.2000 as the qualifying date, the State Election Commission in order to give an opportunity to the persons who had become eligible to be registered as voters in the Panchayat voters lists after the same were revised in the year 1999, issued a programme inviting claims for inclusion of names from the persons whose names were not entered in the Panchayat voters lists earlier revised and on the basis of claims so received and accepted by the District Electoral Officer (Panchayat). The Supplementary lists in the form of addenda were added to the Panchayat voters lists.

Chapter- 5

POLL PERSONNELS

1. Returning Officer (Gram Panchayat/Panchayat Samiti):- Rule 16 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 provides that the State Election Commissioner or when so authorised by him the District Election Officer (Panchayat) shall appoint an officer of the Government not below the rank of Group-B Officer as a Returning Officer (Panchayat) for every election to fill a seat in any Panchayat Samiti or Gram Panchayat. However, same officer can be appointed as Returning Officer (Panchayat) for election to more than one Panchayat Samitis or Gram Panchayats.
2. Returning Officer (Zila Parishad):- Rule 15(2) of the 1994 Rules provide that the Deputy Commissioner shall be the Returning Officer for election to the Zila Parishad.
3. Assistant Returning Officer:- Rule 17 of the 1994 Rules provides that the State Election Commissioner or when so authorised by him the District Election Officer (Panchayat) may appoint one or more persons as Assistant Returning Officer (Panchayat) to assist the Returning Officer (Panchayat) in the performance of his functions.
4. Presiding Officer and Polling Officers:- Rule 21 of the Rules ibid provides that Returning Officer (Panchayat) shall appoint a Presiding Officer for each Polling Station and such Polling Officer or Officers to assist the Presiding Officer, as he thinks necessary.

Provided that no person, who is not a Government servant or a servant of any authority under the municipal law or any public undertaking under the Government, shall be appointed as Presiding Officer. Normally one Presiding Officer and four Polling Officers are appointed for one Polling Station. One of the Polling Officers is also authorised as Presiding Officer to perform his functions or any of his functions under the rules.

5. Two ballot boxes at a time were used for election to all the above mentioned four offices of the Panchayati Raj Institutions. The ballot papers for elections to the office of Panch and Sarpanch were put in one ballot box and the ballot paper for elections to offices of Member Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad were put in other ballot box.

6. Polling Officer-1

The Polling Officer-1 will read out loudly the name and Ward No. of the voter immediately as he enters the Polling Station and put a tick mark against his/her name in the marked copy of the voters list and also put the mark of indelible ink on index finger of his/her left hand.

7. Polling Officer-2

The Polling Officer-2 will deliver two ballot papers i.e. one for the office of Panch (white colour) and second for the office of Sarpanch (blue colour) to the voter. This Polling Officer has to ensure that the name of the voter should be in the voter list of the Ward for which the ballot paper is supplied to him. He will also obtain signature or thumb impression of the voter on counter foil of the ballot paper and also put a tick mark against his name on other copy of the voters list available with him for this purpose. He will also give him a rubber stamp marker and explain the procedure for marking on the ballot paper.

8. Polling Officer-3

The functions of Polling Officer-3 are similar to that of Polling Officer-2 except that he will supply the two ballot papers, one for the election to Member Panchayat Samiti (Yellow Colour) and the second for the election to Member Zila Parishad (Pink Colour).

9. Polling Officer-4

He will continuously keep a watch on the ballot boxes to see that after the marking on the ballot papers, they are inserted in the ballot boxes. This Polling Officer also pushes the ballot papers in the ballot boxes with the help of steel pusher from time to time. He also makes the voters to expeditiously leave the Polling Station after casting the vote.

10. Since counting of votes for elections to the offices of Panches and Sarpanches are made at the Polling Stations itself immediately after the close of Poll, no separate staff for this purpose were appointed. However, as the counting of votes polled in the elections to the offices of Members of Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad, was made at the block or Sub-Division Headquarters as specified by the District Election Officers (Panchayat), the Returning Officers had appointed the Counting Supervisors and Counting Assistants for this purpose.

First Panchayat General Elections, 1994

11. For the First Panchayat General Elections held in December, 1994, instructions were issued by the State Election Commission vide its notification No.434/SEC/E-III/94, dated 24.11.1994, authorising all the Deputy Commissioners-cum-District Election Officers (Panchayat) to appoint officers of the Government not below the rank of Group-B Officers as Returning Officer (Panchayat) in their respective districts for elections to the Panchayat Samitis and Gram Panchayats, for a cluster of 4 to 5 Gram Panchayats. The instructions also provided that the Assistant Returning Officers shall be appointed by the District Election Officer (Panchayat) in their respective districts to assist the Returning Officer (Panchayats) in performance of their functions.

12. The instructions also provide that the Assistant Returning Officer (Panchayat) shall be appointed for each Gram Panchayat to assist the Returning Officer (Panchayats) in the elections to for the Gram Panchayats.

13. However, the Assistant Returning Officer (Panchayat) shall not scrutinize the nomination papers of the contesting candidates.

Second Panchayat General Elections, 2000

14. Before the programme for the Second Panchayat General Elections held in March, 2000 was issued, the matters relating to appointment of Returning Officers (Panchayat) and receiving the nomination papers, were discussed in detail with the Deputy Commissioners, District Development & Panchayat Officers and Block Development & Panchayat Officers. Keeping in view that the intending candidates for elections to the offices of Panches and Sarpanches specifically those belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Women candidates would face a lot of hardships in coming all the way to the Block Head Quarters to file their nomination papers, it was decided that for the elections to the Panches and Sarpanches, the nomination papers shall be received at the Head Quarters of the Gram Panchayats. For this purpose the Deputy Commissioners-cum-District Election Officers (Panchayat) were instructed to appoint Group-B level officers as the Returning Officers (Panchayat) and the Group-C level officers as the Assistant Returning Officers (Panchayat). However, for the district in which sufficient number of Group-B officers were not available for appointment as Returning Officer (Panchayat), the Deputy Commissioners were allowed to appoint Senior level Group-C officers of the rank of Junior Engineers, Lecturers of the Senior Secondary Schools, Masters of the Senior Secondary and High Schools, Agriculture Development Officers, Inspectors and other officers in the pay scale of Junior Engineers/Inspectors.

15. After the nomination papers were received, scrutinized and finalised i.e. accepted or rejected, the Polls were held as per schedule notified by the Commission for which separate set of officers were appointed as Presiding Officers. However, in many cases, the same officers who were appointed as Returning Officers (Panchayat) for receiving the nomination papers for election to the offices of Panches and Sarpanches, were assigned the job of Presiding Officers of the Polling Stations, also.

16. For 6035 Gram Panchayats, 6035 Assistant Returning Officers were appointed to assist the Returning Officers for receiving the nomination papers, 114 State Civil Service officers and other senior officers were appointed as Returning Officers for the elections to Panchayat Samitis, 114 Assistant Returning Officers were also appointed to assist them. The Deputy Commissioners of all the 19 Districts functioned as Returning Officers for elections to the 19 Zila Parishads in the State.

17. For 16146 Polling Stations established for the Second Panchayat General Elections, 81040 Polling Personnels were appointed as Presiding Officers and Polling Officers for conduct of elections.

Chapter- 7

DISQUALIFICATION

1. The Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 provides for two Child Norm Policy to be observed by the persons contesting the elections to the offices of Panches and Sarpanches of Gram Panchayats, Chairmen and Vice-Chairmen and Members of Panchayat Samitis and President, Vice-President and Members of Zila Parishads. Clause (q) of Section 175(1) of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 provides that no person shall be a Sarpanch or a Panch of Gram Panchayat or a Member of Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad or continue as such, who has more than two living children:

Provided that a person is having more than two living children on or upto the expiry of one year of the commencement of this Act shall not be deemed to be disqualified.

2. The Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 came into force w.e.f. 22.04.1994. In view of this provision a person who has more than two living children and if any of them was born after 22.04.1995 then he is disqualified to be elected to the Gram Panchayat or Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad. Further if he incurs this disqualification during the term for which he has been elected, then also he is liable to be disqualified from continuing to be a Member of the Gram Panchayat or Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad. At the same time if a person who was subject to the above disqualification (of having more than two living children and one of them was born after 22.04.1995) and has been elected as a Member or Sarpanch of the Gram Panchayat or Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad, then, he is also liable to be disqualified from continuing to be as such.

3. Since the First Panchayat General Elections in the State were held in December, 1994, the disqualification of having more than two living children was not operative in the cases of persons, who contested the elections held in December, 1994. There were not many cases in which the orders of disqualification were passed against the persons elected during the First General elections held in December, 1994.

4. The Second Panchayat General Elections were held in the month of March, 2000. So the disqualification of having more than two living children at the time of election on the cut off date was operative in the cases of persons who contested the elections held in March, 2000 and afterwards. This disqualification was also operative in the cases of persons who though at the time of elections in March, 2000 did not suffer from the disqualification, but after having been elected, they as such had become subject to this disqualification during the term for which they were elected. Many persons who were elected to the Gram Panchayats or Panchayat Samitis or Zila Parishad in the Second General elections held in March, 2000 had given wrong declaration at the time of filing nominations to the effect that they were not suffering from any disqualification. But after the declaration of result and in some cases even during the election process itself, many complaints were received against such persons, who suffered from the above disqualification, due enquiries into these complaints were initiated by the Deputy Commissioners-cum-District Election Officers (Panchayat) against such persons for disqualification/removal and issued Show Cause Notices to them as to why they should not be disqualified on the ground of having more than two living children as laid down under Section 175(1)(q) of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994. After hearing both the parties and when the Deputy Commissioners were satisfied that these persons had more than two living children on or after the cut off date, the orders of disqualification/removal were passed against a large number of the elected persons. Many elected persons against whom such orders of disqualification/removal were passed by the Deputy Commissioners or against whom the proceedings were pending, challenged, the orders of disqualification/removal/proceedings filed Civil Writ Petition in the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana. In these writ petitions, the Constitutional validity of the provisions under Section 175(1)(q) were also challenged and in many cases, the plea of adoption was taken up to plead that after one or more of their children were given in adoption, so these elected persons were left with only two living children and thus the disqualification is not applicable to them. The Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana dismissed the writ petitions of large number of such petitioners and did not allow the plea of adoption to escape from the disqualification. The Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court also held that the provisions are not ultra-vires of the Constitution of India.

5. In many cases SLPs were filed in the Apex Court against the orders of the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana dismissing such writ petitions. In some cases, writ petitions were filed before the Apex Court of India against the orders of disqualifications passed by the Deputy Commissioners or against the proceedings pending before them.

6. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in its order dated 30.07.2003 had up-held the constitutional validity of these provisions of the Act and dismissed more than 200 SLPs/Writ Petitions and Civil Miscellaneous applications filed before it.

7. The plea of adoption taken by some of the Petitioners were also not allowed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. Relevant operative part of some of the orders of the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana and the Supreme Court of India's judgement dated 30.07.2003 are reproduced below :-

HIGH COURT'S JUDGEMENTS

In CWP No.6335 of 2001 – Jharmal V/s State of Haryana & others

“The Counsel for the Petitioner argued that the religious tenants governing the petitioner permit him to have four wives. There is no embargo on the number of children. Thus, the offending legislation is against religion and thus, invalid.

We are unable to accept this contention. The provision does not debar the petitioner from having children. It does not affect his freedom of religion. It only provides that a person like the petitioner shall be disqualified from holding the office of Sarpanch. The purpose is to send a message to the people at the grass-root level. Persons who opt to lead people in villages must set a personal example. To achieve this objective, the legislature has provided that a person having more than two living children shall not be eligible to hold the office of Sarpanch.

Mr. Chaudhary submits that such an embargo has not been placed on other elected offices like those of the Member of Parliament and Legislative Assemblies. Thus, the provision violates Article 14. We are unable to accept the contention.

An omission to make a similar provision in other cases can not ipso facto result in the provision becoming unconstitutional. It may be advisable for the Parliament and the State Legislatures to enact laws imposing similar restrictions even in respect of various other offices. However, till such time as a similar provision is made, it can not be said that Section 175(1)(q) is unconstitutional.

The growing numbers pose a national problem. From about 300 million at the time of independence, we have already crossed the one ‘billion’ barrier. There is not tangible reason for optimism in sight. For the poor in the country, procreation appears to be the only recreation. Thus, the growth continues. The numbers continue to multiply. A check is a national imperative. The impugned provision is a small step. The purpose is laudable. The example is worth emulation. It suffers from no legal infirmity.

In view of the above, we find no merit in these petitions. These are, consequently, dismissed. The provision and the order are held to be legal and valid. Under the circumstances the parties are left to bear their own costs.

CWP No.5985 of 2000 – Ali Mohammad and others V/s
State of Haryana & others

“We have already referred in the Judgement, the purpose of enacting this provision under challenged and the right to life. Keeping in view the same can not be extended in the manner that endless millions keep multiplying when every one has thereafter to live an animal existence. The restrictions, therefore, can not be termed to be arbitrary.

In some of the matters, it was pointed out that though certain petitioners had more than two children but one of them had been given in adoption, therefore, they only had two children. Our attention was drawn to the provisions of the Hindu Law that once the child is given in adoption, e is transplanted to the next family adopting the child and therefore, such petitioner is stated to have only two children.

We find that the said contention so much though of is without any merit. The Legislature in its wisdom has used the words has more than two living children. In other words, disqualification arises the moment a person gives birth to a third child subject to the proviso. The disqualification that accrues does not put an end to the subsequent act. If the Legislature has so desired, it could had made a provision in this regard. The intention was to restrict the birth of number of children to not more than two and consequently this particular plea must also be held to be devoid of any merit.

A similar Civil Writ Petition No.15714 of 1996 titled Lala Ram V/s State of Haryana was filed and once again constitutional validity of Section 175(1)(q) of the Act was upheld. We find ourselves in agreement with the earlier decision.

For these reasons, all these writ petitions must fail and are dismissed.

8. Similar identical question has also been upheld by the Hon’ble Punjab & Haryana High Court in its judgements in CWP No. 11439 of 1997 – Fazru V/s State of Haryana & others and CWP No. 8730 of 2001 - Roshni Devi V/s State of Haryana & others.

SUPREME COURT'S JUDGEMENT

C.A. No.5335 to 5372, 5380, 5381, 5382, 5397 to 5450 of 2003 –Javed & others V/s State of Haryana & others

“It is necessary to have a look at the population scenario, of the world and of our own country.

India has the (dis)credit of being second only to China at the top in the list of the 10 most populous countries of the world. As on 01.02.2000 the population of China was 1,277.6 million while the population of India as on 01.03.2001 was 1,027.0 million (Census of India), 2001, Series 1, India – Paper 1 of 2001, page 29)

The torrential increase in the population of the country is one of the major hindrances in the pace of India's socio-economic progress. Everyday, about 50,000 persons are added to the already large base of its population.

x x x x x

The laudable goals spelt out in the Directive Principles of State Policy in the Constitution of India can best be achieved if the population explosion is checked effectively. Therefore, the population control assumes a central importance for providing social and economic justice to the people of India (Usha Tandon, Reader, Faculty of Law, Delhi University – Research Paper on Population Stabilisation, Delhi Law Review, Vol.XXIII 2001, pp. 125-131.

x x x x x

The above facts and excerpts highlight the problem of population explosion as a national and global issue and provide justification for priority in policy oriented legislations wherever needed.

x x x x x x

To say the least it is futile to assume or urge that the impugned legislation violates right to live and liberty guaranteed under Article 21 in any of the meanings however expanded the meanings may be.

x x x x x x x

In our view, a statutory provision casting disqualification on contesting for, or holding, an elective office is not violative of Article 25 of the Constitution.

X X X X X

If any one chooses to have more living children than two, he is free to do so under the law as it stands now but then he should pay a little price and that is of depriving himself from holding an office in Panchayat in the State of Haryana. There is nothing illegal about it and certainly no unconstitutionality attaches to it.

Some Incidental questions

It was submitted that the enactment has created serious problems in the rural population as couples desirous of contesting an election but having living children more than two, are feeling compelled to give them in adoption. Subject to what has already been stated hereinabove, we may add that disqualification is attracted no sooner a third child is born and is living after two living children. Merely because the couple has parted with one child by giving the child away in adoption, the disqualification does not come to an end. While interpreting the scope of disqualification we shall have to keep in view the evil sought to be cured and purpose sought to be achieved by the enactment. If the person sought to be disqualified is responsible for or has given birth to children more than two who are living then merely because one or more of them are given in adoption the disqualification is not wiped out.

The challenge to the constitutional validity of Section 175(1)(q) and 177(1) fails on all the counts. Both the provisions are held Intra-vires the Constitution. The provisions are salutary and in public interest. All the petitions which challenge the constitutional validity of the above said provisions are held liable to be dismissed.

Certain consequential orders would be needed. The matters in this batch of hundreds of petitions can broadly be divided into a few categories. There are writ petitions under Article 32 of the Constitution directly filed in this Court wherein the only question arising for decision is the constitutional validity of the impugned provisions of the Haryana Act. There were many a writ petitions filed in the High Court of Punjab & Haryana under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution which have been dismissed and appeals by special leave have been filed in this Court against the decisions of the High Court. The writ petitions, whether in this Court or in the High Court, were filed at different stages of the proceedings. In some of the matters the High Court had refused to stay by interim order the disqualification or the proceedings relating to disqualification pending before the Director under Section 177(2) of the Act. With the decision in these writ petitions and the appeals arising out of SLPs the proceedings shall stand revived at the stage at which they were, excepting in those matters where they stand already concluded. The proceedings under Section 177(2) of the Act before the Director or the hearing in the appeals as the case may be shall now be concluded. In such of the cases where the persons proceeded against have not filed their replies or have not appealed against the decision of the Director in view of the interim order of this Court or the High Court having been secured by them they would be entitled to file reply or appeal, as the case may be, within 15 days from the date of this judgement if the time had not already expired before their initiating proceedings in the High Court or this Court. Such of the cases where defence in the proceedings under Section 177(2) of the Act was raised on the ground that the disqualification was not attracted on account of a child or more having been given in adoption, need not be re-opened as we have held that such a defence is not available.

Subject to the above said directions all the writ petitions and civil appeals arising out of SLPs are dismissed.

9. The details of the casual vacancies occurred as a result of orders of disqualification/removal under Sections 51, 175 and 177 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act 1994 Act, which have been filled up during the bye-elections are given below:-

| Bye-elections held on | Panches | Sarpanches | Member Panchayat Samiti | Member Zila Parishad | Total |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|------------|-------------------------|----------------------|-------------|
| June/July, 2000 | Nil | Nil | Nil | 1 | 01 |

| 4 th August, 2002 | 230 | 9 | 12 | Nil | 251 |
| 15 th December, 2002 | 45 | 3 | 0 | Nil | 48 |
| 10 th August, 2003 | 93 | 18 | 2 | Nil | 113 |
| 28 th December, 2003 | 336 | 144 | 25 | 3 | 508 |
| Number of Persons disqualified after 13.12.2003 upto 10.03.2004 | 127 | 56 | 4 | 1 | 188 |
| Total | 1044 | 249 | 49 | 8 | 1350 |

10. More than 99% of the above mentioned casual vacancies occurred as a result of orders of disqualification/removal on the ground of having more than two living children passed by the Deputy Commissioners. Only a very few cases of disqualifications or removals of the above cases, were made on some other grounds i.e. encroachment of Panchayat land, arrear of Panchayat dues or conviction by the Courts in criminal offences.

11. Besides this, some cases in which orders of disqualification/removal have been passed on the ground of having more than two living children on the cut off date are still pending with the Government/Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana in which stay against the orders of the disqualification/removal have been granted. Further more than 300 complaints are also pending with the Deputy Commissioners in which proceedings for disqualification/removal on the ground of having more than two living children on the cut off date, have been initiated.

12. The surveys to find out as to how many of the elected persons were subject to the disqualifications at the time of their election or have become subject to the disqualification after having been elected as such and are still continuing to hold the offices of Panches, Sarpanches, Members of Panchayat Samitis or Zila Parishads were undertaken by the District Authorities as per directions issued by the State Election Commission. Reports about one thousand elected persons who are suffering from this disqualification and are still continuing to hold offices in the Panchayati Raj Institutions have been made by the field staff to the Deputy Commissioners, who are taking further action in the matter to process these cases and initiating proceedings for disqualification/removal against such elected persons.

Measures taken

13. Since the candidates while filing their nomination papers were giving only a declaration that they were not suffering from any disqualification, no legal action could be taken against them despite the fact that a very large number of elected persons were declared disqualified/removed on account of having more than two living children on the cut off date. So, the Commission has now made it mandatory for the candidates to file Affidavit specifically declaring that they were not having more than two living children on the date of filing nomination or if they are having more than two living children, then any of them was not born after 22.04.1995, so that legal action against them could be taken against them for filing false affidavits under Indian Penal Code. These measures have been introduced by the Commission w.e.f. 06.10.2003.

Chapter- 9

Political Parties and Symbols

1. No separate registration and recognition of Political parties is done by the State Election Commission, Haryana at its own level. Rather the registration and recognition of the National parties and the State level parties in Haryana State made by the Election Commission of India has been adopted by the State Election Commission Haryana, for which the list is maintained and updated as and when any changes are notified by the Election Commission of India.
2. Rule 33 (2) of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 provides that the list of symbols shall be published by the State Election Commission in official gazette and he may in the like manner add to or vary such list.
3. Before the First Panchayat General Elections held in December, 1994, the Commission vide its notification No.SEC/PR/94, dated 15.09.1994 notified the list of symbols for elections to Members of Zila Parishads, Members of Panchayat Samitis, Sarpanches and Panches of Gram Panchayats. A copy of the orders is attached as Annexure 62.
4. Later on, in exercise of powers conferred on it under clause (1) of Article 243K of the Constitution of India and Section 212 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 read with Rule 33 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994, the Commission issued the Haryana Panchayati Raj Elections Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1996 attached at Annexure 64. This order provides that the State Election Commission shall notify from time to time the election or elections which shall be held on party basis and elections which shall not be held on party basis. The 1996 orders also provides that the list of reserved symbols for the candidates set up by Political Parties and the list of free symbols for independent candidates (i.e. candidates not set up by Political Parties) shall be notified by the Commission from time to time. It also provides that the Commission shall notify from time to time the list of recognised Political Parties and symbols reserved for them and the list of registered but unrecognised Political Parties. It also provides that every candidate in an election to Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad not held on party basis, shall declare in the nomination paper first filed by him the choice of three symbols from the list of free symbols for the election of Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad as the case may be, indicating the order of his preference. The order also provides the procedure for allotment of symbols. The orders also provides that in the elections to the offices of Panches and Sarpanches which were not held on party basis, on the last date of withdrawal of nominations, the symbols (from the list notified by the Commission) shall be allotted to the contesting candidates seriatumwise in the order in which their names are mentioned in the list of contesting candidates prepared in Hindi in alphabetical order of Devnagri Script. It also, provides that no candidate will ask for any other symbol but for the symbol notified by the State Election Commission. The lists of symbols were revised from time to time. The latest list of symbols notified by the Commission's notification No.SEC/2E-III/2002/1605, dated 01.05.2002 are given below :-

BALLOT BOXES AND BALLOT PAPERS

Ballot Boxes

1. Rule 40 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 provides that every ballot box shall, subject to general or special order of the State Election Commission, be of such design that ballot papers can be inserted therein but cannot be withdrawn there from without the box being unlocked and the seals being broken. No independent and separate design of ballot box was made by the State Election Commission and the same ballot boxes used for the Assembly and Parliamentary elections, were used in the Panchayat elections as well. The Commission had purchased 1500 ballot boxes for the use in the Panchayat elections. Since a very large number of ballot boxes are required to be used for the Panchayat General Elections and also for the bye-elections, the ballot boxes were taken from the State Election Department on rent basis. The details of the total number of ballot boxes used for the Second Panchayat General Elections, 2000 and the amount of rent paid to the State Election Department are given below :-

| Sr.No. | Name of District | Total Number of Ballot Boxes Hired | Rent paid to the Election Department (in Rupees) |

2. The instructions for the use of ballot boxes have been provided in the compendium of instructions for the Returning Officers/Assistant Returning Officers provided by the Commission.

Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs)

3. As per provisions in the 1994 Act every Ward of a Gram Panchayat is an independent constituency, therefore, there are about 65000 constituencies for the Panchayat elections. For such a large number of 65000 territorial constituencies, if EVMs are to be used for Panchayat elections, a very large number of EVMs would be required to be taken on rent from the Election Commission of India. Besides this, in view the provisions in the Panchayat Act to keep the ballot papers in custody for one year after the completion of election, the Election Commission of India would not lend such a large number of its EVMs for the Panchayat elections as the same would then be blocked for one year. Further, the purchase of the EVMs by the Commission has not been found feasible, as it involved investment of huge amount of funds. Therefore, no amendment in the Panchayat Act for use of EVMs for the Panchayat Elections has been proposed by the Commission.

Ballot Papers

4. Rule 41 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 provides that every ballot paper shall be of such design as may be approved by the State Election Commission and the ballot paper for election of Panches, Sarpanches, Members of Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads shall be in four different colours through out the State of Haryana. The Commission had issued instructions for printing of ballot papers providing therein the specifications about size and form of the ballot paper.

First Panchayat General Elections-1994

5. For the First Panchayat General Elections held in December, 1994, blank ballot papers of two to eighteen symbols were printed for the elections to the offices of Panches and Sarpanches of Gram Panchayats. Since, instructions issued by the Commission vide its No.660/SEC/E-III/94, dated 05.12.1994 and the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1996 does not provide any choice in the symbols to the candidates in the election to the offices of Panches and Sarpanches, the Returning Officer assigned the symbols alphabetically to the candidates from the list of symbols notified by the Commission. The names of the contesting candidates in the elections to each Ward of the Gram Panchayats and also to the offices of Sarpanch of the Gram Panchayats were written by the Returning Officers in the lists of contesting candidates prepared by them and sent to the district authorities immediately after the last date of withdrawal of candidature. Thereafter, the required number of blank ballot papers as per the number of voters allotted to a Polling Station plus 5% extra ballot papers to meet the exigency which may arise, were supplied to the Presiding Officers a day before the date of Poll. The Presiding Officers were directed to fill up the details of the Names of the contesting candidate, Ward Number, Names of the Gram Panchayat, Names of the Block and the District and put his signatures on the blank ballot papers. The filled up ballot papers duly signed by the Presiding Officers were issued to the voters in the Polling Stations on the date of poll. Similar details were also to be written on the blank ballot papers used in the elections to the office of Sarpanch.

6. However, for the election to the Members of Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads, the ballot papers were printed by the Controller of Printing & Stationery Department, on which the name of the candidate, the symbols assigned to them, Ward Number, Names of Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads etc. were also got printed. In some cases, the ballot papers were got printed from the private printing presses as well.

Second Panchayat General Elections-2000

7. For the Second Panchayat General Elections held in March, 2000, it was decided that the ballot papers even for the elections to the offices of Panches and Sarpanches of the Gram Panchayats shall also be got printed on the pattern of the ballot papers printed for the elections to the offices of the Members of Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads. As every Ward of the Gram Panchayat is an independent constituency, the work for printing of the ballot papers involved printing of about more than 60000 types of ballot papers. The State Printing and Stationery Department expressed its inability for printing of the ballot papers for the Panchayat elections on the ground that the Department did not have the required infrastructure for printing of more than 60000 types of ballot papers. The total number of ballot papers required to be printed were about four crores. Hence, tenders were invited, which were processed and finalized by a High Powered Purchase Committee comprising of State Election Commissioner, Haryana, Director, Supplies & Disposal, Haryana, Director, Panchayats Haryana, Director, Local Bodies, Haryana, Joint Secretary, Finance Department, Haryana and Controller, Printing & Stationery Department, Haryana. The instructions issued by the Commission requiring the printing of ballot papers in different colours i.e. white for Panches, blue for Sarpanches, yellow for Member Panchayat Samitis and pink for Member Zila Parishad. Since the coloured paper in required quantity and also of the required shape (i.e. in rolls) was not available with the Controller, Printing & Stationery Department at the time of printing of ballot papers, it was decided that instead of getting the ballot papers printed on coloured papers, the ballot papers should be printed in inks of the required colours on white paper because the coloured papers of required colours in sufficient quantity could not be procured by the department of Printing & Stationery for completing the printing of the ballot papers within five days.

Supervision of Security Presses

8. In order to ensure timely completion of printing of ballot papers, the Deputy Commissioners were asked to deploy experienced and competent officers for supervision of printing of the ballot papers at the printing Presses and review the progress of work regularly during the period when the printing was undertaken. In response to the request of the Commission, the Commissioner of Police, Delhi Administration, provided the required police force at the Security Printing Presses. Instructions were issued that no unauthorized person shall be allowed to enter inside the Printing Presses when the printing work was in progress. The instructions were also issued for making adequate security arrangements for the transportation of the ballot papers from the printing presses to the District/Block Headquarter's and also for storing the ballot papers in lock and key till they were issued to the polling staff.

The district wise details of the total number of ballot papers printed by the three Security Presses for the Second Panchayat General Election, 2000, are given below :-

NOTIFICATION

No. SEC/E-III/2000/3641

Dated:- 01.03.2000

Whereas the time schedule for holding General elections to Panchayats i.e. Panches and Sarpanches of Gram Panchayats and Members of Panchayats Samitis and Zila Parishads in three phases was issued by the State Election Commission vide notification No SEC/E-III/2000/3403, dated 23.2.2000, which was later on modified vide Commission's notification No. SEC/E-III/2000/3583, dated 25.2.2000 to hold these elections in two phases i.e. on 22nd March, 2000 and 29th March, 2000.

2. And whereas since the Board of School Education Haryana, Bhiwani had issued the detesheet for Senior Secondary Certificate Annual Examinations March, 2000 to be held from 7th March, 2000 to 29th March, 2000 vide its programme dated 5.2.2000, the Financial Commissioner & Secretary to Government Haryana, Education and Language Department, Chandigarh, Director, Secondary Education, Haryana, Chandigarh and Secretary, Board of School Education Haryana, Bhiwani were requested vide Commission's letter No. SEC/E-III/2000/3607, SEC/E-III/2000/3608 and SEC/E-III/2000/3606, dated 25.2.2000 respectively to postpone the examinations scheduled to be held on 22nd March, 2000 and 29th March, 2000 and make available the school buildings on these two days for the conduct of poll as most of the polling stations notified by the Deputy Commissioner-cum-District Election Officer (Panchayat) in the State are located in these School Building.

3. And whereas, the State Government in the Administrative Departments of Development and Panchayat Department and Education and Language Department vide their memo No. E-I/2000/Spl dated 28.2.2000 and Endorsement dated 28.2.2000 respectively have informed that the examination schedule of Haryana Education Board has already been fixed and published and in addition the 8th Class Examination which are held in centralized manner have also been finalized, and if the dates of Panchayat elections are kept on 22nd March, 2000 and 29th March, 2000 it would dislocate the holding of examinations very much. State Government in these two Administrative Departments had accordingly requested for changing the polling dates of Panchayat elections from 22nd and 29th March, 2000 to any Sunday and some other working day. Keeping in view the fact that almost all the polling stations as notified by the Deputy Commissioners-cum-District Election Officers (Panchayat) are located in these school buildings, it is not possible to hold the Panchayat Elections unless the school buildings are made available to be used as polling stations for holding these elections.

4. And whereas in view of the above position the State Election Commission, Haryana has now decided to hold the General Panchayat Elections in the State in two phase i.e. on 12th March, 2000 and 16th March, 2000 instead of on 22nd March, 2000 and 29th March, 2000 earlier notified.

5. And now in exercise of powers vested in me under Sub-Section (2) of Section 212 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994, I, T.D.Jogpal, State Election Commissioner, Haryana hereby prescribe, in the modification of the notification No. SEC/E-III/2000/3403, dated 23.02.2000 and notification No.

SEC/E-III/2000/3583, dated 25.02.2000 that polling in respect of first phase will now be held on 12th March, 2000 (Sunday) from 8.00 A.M. to 4.00 P.M. and polling in respect of second phase shall be held on 16th March, 2000 (Thursday) from 8.00 A.M. to 4.00 P.M. in all the blocks of the districts as per details given below:-

4. The Commission has decided that Group B Officers of the Government should be appointed as Presiding Officers incharge of the polling Stations and the Group 'C' officials of the Government available in the District may be appointed as Polling Officers. However, in cases where there are more than one Polling Station in the Sabha Area for elections to Members and Sarpanch of one Gram Panchayat then the Presiding Officer No.1 should be a Group 'B' Government Officer and other Presiding Officers of the Polling Stations in that Sabha Area could be from the Group 'C' officers of the Government.

5. Since in the notification No.SEC/E-III/2000/2756, dated 16.02.2000 referred to above it has been provided that Group 'B' Government Officers should be appointed as Returning Officers (Panchayat) for elections to Members and Sarpanch of a Gram Panchayat. Therefore, the same Group 'B' officers who had been appointed as Returning Officers (Panchayat) for election to Members and Sarpanch may be appointed as Presiding Officer incharge of the Polling Station in the Sabha Area of that Gram Panchayat. However, if there are more than one polling Stations in the Sabha Area of a Gram Panchayat then the officer who was appointed as Returning Officer (Panchayat) for elections to Members and Sarpanch of that Gram Panchayat should be appointed as designated as Presiding Officer No.1 and other Presiding Officers of other Polling Stations in the Sabha Area of that Gram Panchayat could be appointed as Returning Officers from Group 'C' officers of the Government.

NOTIFICATION

No.SEC/E-III/2000/3489

Dated 24.02.2000

In partial modification of instructions issued in Notification No.SEC/E-III/2000/2756, dated 16.02.2000 of the Commission regarding appointment of Returning Officers (Panchayat)/Assistant Returning Officers (Panchayat) for election to Panches, Sarpanches and Members of Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads in the State, the State Election Commission now has decided that as per provisions contained in Rule 16 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 only Class-II Officers i.e. Group Officers of the Government shall be appointed as Returning Officers (Panchayat) for election to Members and Sarpanches of Gram Panchayats. Since the sufficient number of Group-B officers may not available in some districts to be appointed as Returning Officers (Panchayat) for each Gram Panchayat, in those cases the Group "B" officers of the Govt. would be appointed as Returning Officers (Panchayat) for the election to Members and Sarpanches of a Group of Gram Panchayats. To assist these Group 'B' officers appointed as Returning Officers (Panchayat), under Rule 17 (1), Senior Class-III i.e. Group "C" officers may be appointed as Asstt. Returning Officers(Panchayat). Under Rule 17(2) of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 the Asstt. Returning Officers (Panchayat) shall subject to the control of Returning Officer(Panchayat), be competent to perform all or any of the functions of the Returning Officer (Panchayat). So wherever Group-C Officers of the Government are appointed as Asstt. Returning officers(Panchayats), they may be authorised by the Returning Officer(Panchayat) to discharge any of his functions. Accordingly the instructions issued in this Commission's notification dated 16.02.2000 are modified to this extent.

NO. SEC/E-III/2001/9709-9727

DATED: 9.7.2001

TO

All the Deputy Commissioner-cum-
District Election Officers (Panchayat)
In the State of Haryana.

Subject: Instructions regarding elections/bye-elections-Scrutiny of nomination paper-Allotment of symbols and declaration of results etc.

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to refer on the subject cited above and to say that the bye-elections to 681 seats of Panches, 73 offices of Sarpanches, 20 wards of Panchayat Samitis and 3 wards of Zila Parishads are to be held on 29.7.2001.

A few days before issuing the programme for the bye-elections, State Election Commission had discussed certain issues with some deputy Commissioners, District Development and Panchayat Officers and Block Development and Panchayat Officers, clarifications and guidelines/instructions on those points/ issues are issued hereby.

1. At the time of scrutiny of the nomination papers by the Returning Officer, the following points should be kept in mind:-
 - (a) If a nomination paper of the intending candidate is to be rejected by the Returning Officer (Panchayat) he should record the reason for the rejection in the form of speaking order on the nomination form itself.
 - (b) If any intending candidate does not produce a No Dues Certificate, then his/her nomination should not be rejected merely on this count. If any amount is reported to be outstanding against him and reported to the Returning Officer, then he should decide the case under Section 175 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994.
 - (c) At the time of allotment of symbols, the complete proceedings should be drawn by the Returning Officer (P) and if a single candidate remains in the field, the reasons for not allotting the symbol should be recorded on the nomination paper to the effect that the symbol is not allotted as there is a single candidate.
 - (d) The Returning Officer (P) should get the signatures of the candidates or their agents on the margin of the nomination form at the time of allotment of symbol. If any candidate/agent refuses to sign it, the same should also be recorded.

2. Complete proceedings at end of counting of votes should be drawn by the Presiding Officer and these proceedings should be got signed from the candidates or their agent.
3. The number of valid votes polled in favour of each candidate mentioned against their names in Form No. 18 in the case of Panch, in Form No. 19 in the case of Sarpanch, in Form No. 20 in the case of Member Panchayat Samiti, in form No. 21 in the case of Member, Zila Parishad should be the same number of votes as have been mentioned in the result sheets prepared by Presiding Officers on Form No. 14 in the case of Panch, Form No. 15 in the case of Sarpanch, on Form No. 16, in the case of Member Panchayat Samiti, on Form No. 17 in the case of Member Zila Parishad as the case may be and the name of the candidate in whose favour highest number of valid votes have been polled should be written in the space provided in the respective form for declaring the candidate elected.
4. It has also been noticed by the Commission that in many cases even a candidate who has withdrawn his candidature or person who has even not filed a nomination papers, was declared elected by the Returning Officer (Panchayat) . It has also been noticed that in large number of cases in the list of elected persons received from the Deputy Commissioners for notifying their names, the names of persons in whose favour highest number of votes have not been polled have been mentioned. You are, therefore, requested to meticulously examine the results received from the Returning officers (Panchayat) and verify them from the result sheets before their names are entered in the list of elected persons which are sent to the Commission for notifying their names. Such list of the elected persons should, therefore, be sent under the signatures of the Deputy Commissioner and not under the signatures of District Development and Panchayat Officer or any other officer of the District Administration.
5. It has also been noticed that in some cases the printing of symbols on the ballot papers have not been made in accordance with the symbol allotted to them. In some cases, symbols were also not allotted as per the instructions issued by the Commission. You are, therefore, requested to instruct the Returning Officers (Panchayat) to meticulously comply with the instructions and procedure about allotment of symbols and ensure that the same symbol allotted to the candidate are printed against their names in the ballot papers.

मतदाताओं का रजिस्ट्रीकरण तथा मतदाता सूचियां तैयार करने के सम्बन्ध में निर्देश।

मतदाता सूची किसी भी निर्वाचन का आधार होती है। सही और निष्पक्ष चुनाव के लिये यह आवश्यक है कि मतदाता सूचि में ऐसे सभी सब लोगों के नाम सम्मिलित हो, जिन्हें कानून के अन्तर्गत मत देने का हक प्राप्त है और साथ ही ऐसे किसी व्यक्ति का नाम सूची में शामिल न होने पाये जिसे यह हक प्राप्त नहीं है। अतः मतदाता सूचि तैयार करने में हर स्तर पर बहुत सावधानी अपेक्षित है। हरियाणा पंचायती राज अधिनियम, 1994 की धारा 163 तथा हरियाणा पंचायती राज (निर्वाचन) नियम 1994 के नियम 8 के अन्तर्गत मतदाता सूचि तैयार करने का दायित्व राज्य निर्वाचन आयोग का है।

2, अधिनियम के अन्तर्गत बनाए गये हरियाणा पंचायती राज (निर्वाचन) नियम 1994 (जिनमें कि आगे चलकर निर्वाचन नियम कह कर सम्बोधित किया गया है) के अध्याय-4 में नियम 8 से लेकर 13 तक में मतदाता सूचियां बनाये जाने का प्रावधानों का उल्लेख है।

- 3 इन्हीं नियमों के अन्तर्गत मतदाता सूचियां तैयार करने कार्य में सलग्न विभिन्न स्तर के अधिकारियों तथा कर्मचारियों के मार्गदर्शन तथा प्रक्रिया को और अधिक स्पष्ट करने के उद्देश्य से ये निर्देश प्रसारित किये जा रहे हैं।
- 4 प्रारम्भिक मतदाता सूचियां तैयार करने, उन्हें प्रकाशित करने तथा उनके सम्बन्ध में प्राप्त दावों और आपत्तियों का निपटारा कर अन्तिम रूप से मतदाता सूची तैयार करने का दायित्व प्रत्येक जिले में नियुक्त जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी का है।
- 5 जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी आयोग द्वारा निर्धारित समय सारणी के अन्दर मतदाता सूचियां तैयार करने का उतरदायित्व इसी अधिकारी का रहेगा।
- 6 जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी के निम्नांकित दायित्व होंगे:-

- (1) अपने प्रभार की प्रत्येक ग्रामपंचायत की/पंचायत समिति की/जिला परिषद् की वार्डवार मतदाता सूचि तैयार करना (नियम 8) मतदाता सूचि विधान सभा की प्रचलित निर्वाचक नामावली (अर्थात् वर्तमान समय से प्रभावशील मतदाता सूचि) के आधार पर तैयार की जायेगी। उसमें से जो भी परिवर्तन परिवर्धन एवं संशोधन हुये हो उन्हें मतदाता सूचि में यथास्थान सम्मिलित किया जायेगा। इस हेतू जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी विधान सभा की प्रचलित निर्वाचक नामावली की दो-दो प्रतियां अपने पास रखेगा। ये प्रतियां उन सभी गावों से सम्बन्धित होनी चाहिये जो सम्बन्धित अधिकारी को सौंपी गई ग्राम पंचायतों में सम्मिलित हो। मतदाता सूचि निर्वाचन नियम 8 के अन्तर्गत निर्धारित प्ररूप-1 में तैयार की जाएगी। ग्राम पंचायतवार प्रारम्भिक मतदाता सूचि में मतदाताओं के आवास स्थानों के आधार पर उन्हें समूहीकृत करते हुये, यथास्थान वार्ड नम्बर अंकित कर देंगे।
- (2) मतदाता सूचि का प्रकाशन (नियम 9) उपरोक्तानुसार तैयार की गई प्रारम्भिक मतदाता सूचि को आयोग द्वारा निर्धारित समय सारणी के अन्तर्गत विनिश्चित तारीख को, निम्नांकित स्थानों में प्रकाशित किया जायेगा:-

- (i) सम्बन्धित ग्राम पंचायत/पंचायत समिति/जिला परिषद् के कार्यालय में।
- (ii) सम्बन्धित ग्राम पंचायत के क्षेत्रान्तर्गत आने वाले प्रत्येक गांव में एक या दो सहज दृश्य स्थानों पर (जैसे कि सहकारी समिति का कार्यालय, उचित मूल्य की दुकान, आंगनवाडी केन्द्र, चौपाल आदि)
- (iii) सम्बन्धित तहसील कार्यालय में सूचना फलक में।
- (iv) खण्ड निवाचन कार्यालय, जिसमें ग्राम पडता है।
- (v) जिला परिषद की सूचि प्रत्येक ग्राम में, यदि गांव वार्ड में हो।

मतदाता सूचि के प्रकाशन के साथ-साथ उसके सम्बन्ध में आपत्तियां तथा दावे आमत्रित करते हुये एक सूचना भी प्रकाशित की जायेगी। यह निर्धारित प्रारूप में होगी जिसे परिशिष्ट-2 में उद्धरित किया गया है। इस सूचना में दावे तथा आपत्तियां प्रस्तुत करने की अंतिम तारीख का उल्लेख सुवाच्य अंको में किया जाये। नियम 9 के अन्तर्गत मतदाता सूचि की एक-एक प्रति सहायक जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी तथा सम्बन्धित ग्राम पंचायत कार्यालय में आम जनता के निशुलक निरीक्षण हेतू 10 अक्टूबर तक, प्रातः 9 बजे से सांय 5 बजे तक खुली रखी जानी है। अतः यह सुनिश्चित किया जाये कि उक्त कार्यालयों में जिस कर्मचारी की सूची का निरीक्षण कराने का उतरदायित्व सौंपा जाये वह निर्धारित तारीखों में बराबर वहां उपस्थित रहे। जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी के कार्यालय में यह उतरदायित्व उसके रीडर या कार्यालय के किसी अन्य कर्मचारी को सौंपा जा सकता है। परन्तु जहां तक ग्राम पंचायत कार्यालय का प्रश्न है इसके लिये जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी (पंचायत) को एक विशिष्ट आदेश द्वारा यह दायित्व ग्राम स्तर पर पदस्थ कर्मचारियों में से हो किसी को सौंपा जाना होगा। ऐसा कर्मचारी निम्नांकित में से कोई भी हो सकता है।

- 1 ग्राम सचिव
- 2 सहायक कृषि विस्तार अधिकारी
- 3 पटवारी
- 4 शासकीय प्राथमिक/माध्यमिक पाठशाला का शिक्षक

यह ध्यान देने योग्य बात है कि मतदाता सचि नवगठित प्रत्येक ग्राम पंचायत के कार्यालय में निरीक्षणार्थ उपलब्ध कराई जानी है। नवगठित ग्राम पंचायतों में से कई ऐसी होगी,

आयोग ने जनता कि सुविधा के लिये यह तय किया है कि सूचियों का निरीक्षण करने का कार्य जिस कर्मचारी को सौंपा जाये उसे निर्धारित अवधि के अन्तर्गत प्राप्त होने वाले दावों एवं आपतियों को प्राप्त करने का दायित्व भी सौंपा जाये। अतः यदि कोई व्यक्ति जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी को सीधे आपति या दावा न प्रस्तुत करते हुये उसे ग्राम पंचायत मुख्यालय में तैनात कर्मचारी को सौंपें तो ऐसे कर्मचारी को उसे लेना होगा इसके लिये सम्बन्धित कर्मचारी द्वारा तत्काल सम्बन्धित दावेदार/आपतिकर्ता को एक रसीद सह सुनवाई की तारीख की सूचना दी जायेगी। रसीद सह सूचना की प्राप्तियां आवश्यक संख्या में चक मुद्रित कराकर सम्बन्धित कर्मचारी को पूर्व से उपलब्ध कराई जाएं। जरूरत पडने पर वह अतिरिक्त प्रतियां हाथ से तैयार कर सकता है। प्राप्त दावे तथा आपति का विवरण सम्बन्धित कर्मचारी द्वारा परिशिष्ट -2 में संघारित एक विवरणिका में (जो कि आवश्यकतानुसार एक या उससे अधिक पृष्ठों की शीट हो सकती है) में रख जायेगा।

प्राप्त दावों और आपतियों को, सम्बन्धित कर्मचारी द्वारा शीघ्रतिशीघ्र जिला निर्वाचक अधिकारी के पास भेजने की व्यवस्था की जायेगी।

(3) प्राप्त दावों और आपतियों की सुनवाई और उनका निपटारा करना:- जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी द्वारा दावों और आपतियों पर सुनाई नियम 10 के अधीन की जाएगी। दावे तथा आपतियों के साथ दावेदार/आपतिकर्ता द्वारा ऐसे दस्तावेज प्रस्तुत किये जायेगे जिन पर वह निर्भर करता हो। सुनवाई के समय जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी, दावेदार/आपतिकर्ता का ब्यान अभिलेखित करने अथवा ऐसी अन्य संक्षिप्त जांच करने के पश्चात जैसा कि वह उचित समझे, अपना विशिचय लेखबद्ध करेगा। अपने विनिश्चय से सम्बन्धित आदेश की एक प्रति वह मांग की जाने पर दावेदार/आपतिकर्ता की निशुल्क उपलब्ध करायेगा।

(4) मतदाता सूचि को संशोधित किया जाना:- जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी, प्रस्तुत दावों को निपटाने के पश्चात, उनमें अपने विनिश्चय के अनुसार मतदाता सूचि को संशोधित करेगा। संशोधित सूची दो प्रतियां में तैयार की जायेगी और उसके प्रत्येक पृष्ठ में जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी द्वारा हस्ताक्षर किये जायेगें। ऐसी अभिप्रमाणित सूचि की एक प्रति वह अपने कार्यालय में रखेगा तथा दूसरी प्रति जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी (पंचायत) के कार्यालय में जमा कराये जाने के लिये तुरन्त भेजेगा। साथ में वह प्रकाशित प्रारम्भिक मतदाता सूचि, प्राप्त दावों और आपतियों और उनके सम्बन्ध में अपने जांच और विनिश्चय सम्बन्धी अभिलेख भी मूलतः भेजेगा। यदि किसी ग्राम पंचायत क्षेत्र की मतदाता सूचि के सम्बन्ध में कोई भी दावा या आपति न हो, तो दावे और आपतियां प्राप्त होने की अंतिम तारीख के अगले कार्यवाही दिवस को ही जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी सूचि को अभिप्रमाणित करते हुये प्रतिलिपि जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी (पंचायत) को भेज देगा।

(5) अन्तिम रूप में तैयार मतदाता सूचि की आवश्यक संख्या में प्रतियां तैयार करना:- पंचायतों के निर्वाचन हेतु समान्तयता 500 से 550 मतदाताओं के लिये एक मतदान केन्द्र स्थापित किया जायेगा। मतदाता सूचि में सम्मिलित किसी वार्ड के सभी मतदाताओं को एक ही मतदान केन्द्र से जोडने के आधार पर ही समान्यता किसी मतदान केन्द्र में मतदाताओं की संख्या 500 से अधिक रहेगी, अन्यथा नहीं चूंकि ऐसी प्रत्येक ग्रामपंचायत में जिसमें मतदाताओं की संख्या 550 से अधिक हो या कहीं-कहीं तीन मतदान केन्द्र स्थापित होंगे, अतः मतदाता सूचि को दो या तीन भागों में विभक्त करना जरूरी होगा ताकि प्रत्येक मतदान केन्द्र के पीठासीन अधिकारी को उस मतदान केन्द्र के सम्बन्ध कार्यों की वृद्धि (आवश्यक संख्या में) उपलब्ध कराई जा सके। सूचि का विभाजन आसान करने की दृष्टि से उसकी प्रतियां तैयार कराते समय जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी (पंचायत) से इस बात का ध्यान रखे कि हर 500 से 550 मतदाताओं अर्थात हर 5 या 6 वार्डों के बाद सूचि में अगलेवार्ड की शुरुआत पेशानी सहित/नए पृष्ठ से हो। यह पुनः स्पष्ट किया जाता है कि ऐसा करते समय सूचि में मतदाताओं के अनुक्रमांक नहीं बदले जायेगे तथा वे पूर्ववत ही सिलसिलेवार (एक से अन्त तक) चलते रहेगे।

STATE ELECTION COMMISSION, HARYANA
S.C.O. NO.16-17, SECTOR-20 D, CHANDIGARH.

NO.SEC/ME/96/16149

Dated : 14.11.1996

ORDER

Subject:- Panchayat/Municipal General Elections/Bye-Elections-restriction on misuse of vehicles.

In the interest of preserving the purity of elections process and rendering the same reflective of true choice of the people the Commission has issued instructions and directions on various aspects. The Commission has particularly been concerned about the increasingly vitiating roll of criminality and muscle powers at elections and has been directing the taking of a number of measures for ensuring peaceful, free and fair poll.

One of the ways in which the voter is sought to be wooed is by offering him "facility of free transport" on the day of poll.

The State Election Commission further observes that during the period of electioneering private vehicles are used by the candidates, their agents and supporters for carting the supporters of a candidate within the wards and on many occasions anti social elements with muscle power are openly paraded to instil a sense of fear in the minds of the voters, so that they either vote in favour of particular candidate or abstain from voting altogether. These vehicles are also used some times to smuggle arms and ammunitions with a view to creating disturbances during the elections.

In order to curb such undesirable and illegal activities the State Election Commission in exercise of the powers vested in it under Article 243-K and 243-ZA of the Constitution of India read with Section 9 of the Haryana Municipal Corporation Act 1994, Section 3A of the Haryana Municipal Act, 1973 and Section 212 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 and all other powers enabling it in this behalf hereby impose restriction to hire or procure whether on payment or otherwise only 2 vehicles or vessels for use by a contesting candidate himself or his agents or his supporters on the day of poll during the Panchayat/Municipal Elections/Bye-Elections.

The State Election Commission has further directs that the express "Vehicle" means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise, and whether used for drawing other vehicle or otherwise.

The State Election Commission further directs that the contesting candidates should be issued permit as per proforma prescribed by the Commission appended herewith. The permit should be issued to the contesting candidates atleast 2 days before the day of poll.

The State Election Commission further directs that the District Administration shall keep a close watch on the vehicles used by persons accompanying the contesting candidates and their supporters for any possible mischief, including criminal activities like carrying of illegal arms and weapons. If any of these vehicles, either of a candidate or a private owner, is found to be involved in any such act or for carting anti-social elements with a view to intimidating or creating terror in the minds of the voters, it should be the duty of the local administration to impound such vehicles and not to release them till the process of elections is completed. In addition, accordingly action against the owner, the occupant/occupants and the candidate which is involved in such illegal activities shall also be taken as per law.

So as to ensure free, fair and peaceful elections, the District Administration shall launch such drive for checking the vehicles immediately upon the announcement of the elections and shall continue the drive till the completion of the process of elections.

A copy of this order shall be made available to the local units of all recognized National/State Political Parties in the State of Haryana immediately and to each candidate, or an agent authorised by him, at the time of his nomination (repeat nomination and not scrutiny of nomination) under acknowledgement.

4. निर्वाचन लड़ने वाले अभ्यर्थियों के नामों की सूची तैयार करना और उन्हें निर्वाचन प्रतीक आबंटित करना ।

32. हरियाणा पंचायती राज (निर्वाचन) नियम, 1994 के नियम 32 के अनुसार रिटर्निंग आफिसर द्वारा पंचायत चुनाव लड़ने वाले अभ्यर्थियों के द्वारा अभ्यर्थिता वापस लिए जाने के पश्चात निर्वाचन लड़ने वाले अभ्यर्थियों की एक सूची प्ररूप 6,7,8,9 में तैयार करना ओर उसका प्रकाशित करना आवश्यक है नियम 32 (2) के अनुसार यह सूची देवनागरी लिपि के वर्णक्रमानुसार हिन्दी में तैयार किये जाने का प्रावधान है, ऐसे अभ्यर्थी जिनका नाम कुल नाम (सरनेम) के साथ है उसके संबंध में सरनेम के प्रथम अक्षर तथा जिनके पास सरनेम सहित न हो उनके नाम के प्रथम अक्षर के वर्णक्रम में लिखे जायें ।

उपरोक्त प्रावधानों को स्पष्ट करते हुए तथा अन्य संभावित परिस्थितियों में आने वाली कठिनाईयों को स्पष्ट करते हुए आयोग द्वारा निम्नानुसार पूरक निदेश प्रसारित किये जा रहे हैं:-

अ. नामांकन पत्रों की संवीक्षा का कार्य समाप्त करने के पश्चात रिटर्निंग आफिसर/सहायक रिटर्निंग आफिसर निर्वाचन लड़ने वाले अभ्यर्थी से उसके नाम के सही सही स्वरूप के बारे में जानकारी प्राप्त कर ले, इस स्तर पर अभ्यर्थी को यह अवसर दिया जा सकता है कि वह अपना नाम मतपत्रों पर किस रूप में चाहता है । यह स्पष्ट कर दे । यदि अभ्यर्थी द्वारा इस संबंध में कोई अन्यथा जानकारी न दी जाये तो नामांकन पत्र में उसके द्वारा अपना नाम जिस रूप में लिखा गया है उसी रूप में सूची में अंकित किया जाना चाहिए ।

आ. अभ्यर्थी को नाम हिन्दी भाषा में देवनागरी लिपि के वर्णक्रम अनुसार लिखा जाएगा । नामांके के स्वर तथा व्यंजनों का क्रम वही होगा जैसा कि हिन्दी वर्णमाला में दिया गया है । नामों के प्रथम अक्षर के आधार पर वर्णक्रम निर्धारित किया जायेगा, यदि अन्यथा अपने नाम के साथ अपना कुलनाम (सरनेम) लिखता है तो सरनेम के प्रथम अक्षर के आधार पर वर्णक्रम निर्धारित किया जाएगा । यदि अभ्यर्थी अपने नाम के साथ कुलनाम नहीं लिखना चाहता तो उस दशा में उसके नाम के प्रथम अक्षर के आधार पर उसका वर्णक्रम निर्धारित किया जाएगा ।

इ. यदि अभ्यर्थी का नाम आदयाक्षर से प्रारम्भ होता है तो वर्णक्रम निर्धारित करते समय आदयाक्षर की ओर ध्यान नहीं दिया जाएगा जैसे यदि शिव कुमार अपना नाम एस कुमार लिखते हैं तो इसे इस स्थिति में 'एस' के बदले 'क' अक्षर के आधार पर वर्णक्रम निर्धारित होगा ।

ई. किसी भी अभ्यर्थी के नाम के साथ आदर सूचक शब्द, शैक्षणिक योग्यता दर्शाने वाले शब्द, पैतृक नाम या व्यवसाय दर्शाने वाले शब्द या किसी उपाधि को दर्शाने वाले शब्द जोड़ने में कोई आपत्ति नहीं है परन्तु नामों का वर्णक्रम व्यवस्थित करते समय इन शब्दों के प्रथमाक्षर पर ध्यान नहीं दिया जाएगा जैसे:-

1. डा० आनन्द मोहन

इस नाम को 'अ' अक्षर (आनन्द नाम के) से आने वाले क्रम में ही लिखा जाएगा । 'डा० ' शब्द के आधार पर नहीं ।

उ. पूर्ण अक्षर से आरम्भ होने वाले नाम के बाद संयुक्त अक्षर से प्रारम्भ होने वाले नाम लिखे जायेंगे लेकिन उनमें भी व्यंजनों का क्रम वर्णमाला में दर्शाये अनुसार ही रखा जाएगा, उदाहरण के लिए:-

1. सरला सक्सेना
2. स्मिता सक्सेना

उ. संयुक्त अक्षरों से आरम्भ होने वाला कोई नाम यदि उच्चारण में एक जैसे प्रतीत होते हैं , किन्तु उन नामों को भिन्न भिन्न तरीके से लिखा जा सकता है जैसे:-

1. अम्बा प्रसाद
2. अंबा प्रसाद

तो उपरोक्त नामों में अम्बा अथवा प्रसाद प्रथम के क्रम में लिखा जाएगा और अंबा प्रसाद उसके बाद लिखा जाएगा क्योंकि अम्बा में प्रथम स्वर 'अ ' वर्णमाला में प्रथम है, जबकि अंबा में स्वर ' अ ' वर्णमाला में अन्त में है।

ए. यदि दो अभ्यर्थियों के नाम एक जैसे हैं तो उनके वर्णक्रम निर्धारित करने के लिए उनके पिता के नामों का प्रथमाक्षर ध्यान में रखा जाएगा जैसे:-

1. कच्छेदी लाल बाबूलाल
2. कच्छेदी लाल आत्माराम

उपरोक्त नामों में कच्छेदी लाल आत्माराम का नाम पहले लिखा जाएगा । कच्छेदी लाल बाबूलाल का नाम उसके बाद लिखा जाएगा ।

ऐ. यदि दो अभ्यर्थियों का नाम तथा उनके पिता का नाम भी एक समान हो तो ऐसी दशा में उनके नामों को उनके द्वारा प्रस्तुत नामांकन पत्रों को तिथि एवं समय के आधार पर प्रथम एवं द्वितीय क्रम पर लिखा जाएगा जैसे:-

1. बिसाउलाल केजूलाल
2. बिसाउलाल केजूलाल

उपरोक्त दोनों अभ्यर्थियों में यदि क्रम 1 पर उल्लेखित अभ्यर्थी द्वारा नाम निर्देशन पद क्र० 2 पर उल्लेखित अभ्यर्थी के पहले प्रस्तुत किया गया है तो उनका नाम दूसरे अभ्यर्थी के पहले सूची में लिखा जाएगा ।

33. पैरा 33 के अनुसार तैयार की गई अभ्यर्थियों की सूची जिसमें अभ्यर्थी को आबंटित निर्वाचन प्रतीक भी अंकित है, की एक प्रति रिटर्निंग आफिसर (पंचायत)/सहायक रिटर्निंग आफिसर के कार्यालय में सूचना फलक पर प्रदर्शित की जाये और एक प्रति निर्वाचन लड़ने वाले अभ्यर्थी या उसके निर्वाचन अभिकर्ता को प्रदान की जाये ।

विषय:- पंचायत उप-चुनाव जुलाई,2000-उम्मीदवारों द्वारा घोषणा पत्र प्रस्तुत करने बारे
हिदायतें।

महोदय/महोदया,

मुझे उपरोक्त विषय पर आपका ध्यान आकर्षित करते हुये यह सूचित करने का निर्देश हुआ है कि राज्य निर्वाचन अयोग के नोटिस में आया है कि रिटर्निंग आफिसर/सहायक रिटर्निंग आफिसर (पंचायत) ने कुछ उम्मीदवारों के नामांकन पत्र इस कारण से रद्द कर दिये कि उन्होंने जो नो डॅयूज सर्टिफिकेट जो कि ग्राम सचिव जारी करता है, अपने नामांकन पत्र के साथ नहीं लगाया था या नामांकन पत्रों की संवीक्षा की तिथि से पहले ऐसे नो डॅयूज सर्टिफिकेट रिटर्निंग आफिसर (पंचायत) को नहीं दिये हालांकि उन द्वारा चुल्हा टैक्स आदि की अदायगी की रसीद नामांकन पत्र के साथ लगाई हुई थी। दूसरे उम्मीदवार जिन्होंने चुल्हा टैक्स की अदायगी की रसीद लगाई हुई थी और नो डॅयूज सर्टिफिकेट भी साथ लगाया हुआ था उसका नामांकन पत्र स्वीकार कर लिया। आयोग ने इस मामले पर विचारोपरान्त यह निर्णय लिया कि क्योंकि हरियाणा पंचायती राज अधिनियम 1994 ओर हरियाणा पंचायती राज इलैक्शन रूलज 1994 ओर आयोग द्वारा जारी किये गये निर्देशों में ऐसा कोई प्रावधान नहीं है कि नामांकन पत्र के साथ या संवीक्षा से पहले उम्मीदवार नो डॅयूज सर्टिफिकेट प्रस्तुत करें इसलिये किसी उम्मीदवार का नामांकन पत्र केवल इस कारण से कि उसने नो डॅयूज सर्टिफिकेट प्रस्तुत नहीं किया, रद्द नहीं करना चाहिये।

हरियाणा पंचायती राज राज अधिनियम 1994 के सैक्शन 175 के सब सैक्शन (1) के क्लोज (आई) में जो प्रावधान है उसके अनुसार अगर कोई उम्मीदवार किसी तरह की भी देय राशि जो उसके विरुद्ध ग्राम पंचायत, पंचायत समिति या जिला परिषद की तरफ से बकाया है या कोई राशि इस अधिनियम के अन्तर्गत उससे रिकवरेबल है तो यह उस उम्मीदवार की आयोग्यता है।

अतः अगर किसी उम्मीदवार के विरुद्ध इस प्रकार का डॅयूज या कोई राशि रिकवरेबल है और इस बारे में कोई ऐतराज करता है या ग्राम पंचायत, पंचायत समिति या जिला परिषद् के अधिकारी या सरकार के किसी अधिकारी जैसे कि खण्ड विकास एवं पंचायत अधिकारी या ग्राम सचिव इत्यादि ऐसी कोई लिस्ट देते हैं ओर उसके आधार पर अगर रिटर्निंग अधिकारी इस निर्णय पर पहुंचता है कि उम्मीदवार के विरुद्ध इन संस्थाओं के डॅयूज बकाया हैं या कोई राशि रिकवरेबल है तो उम्मीदवार को अयोग्य मानने बारे निर्णय लेकर केवल उसके नामांकन पत्र के बारे में अपना निर्णय एक स्पीकिंग आदेश के रूप में पारित करें न कि केवल नो डॅयूज सर्टिफिकेट नहीं दिया तो उसका नामांकन पत्र खारिज कर दें। उपरोक्त को ध्यान में रखते हुये आयोग ने यह निर्णय लिया है कि उम्मीदवार से एक घोषणा पत्र ले लिया जाये कि उसके खिलाफ इन संस्थाओं की कोई देय बकाया नहीं है। और कोई राशि देने की जानकारी के लिये नोटिस लगाया जिसके प्रोफार्मों का फोरमैट साथ संलग्न है परन्तु इसके लिये उम्मीदवार को नामांकन पत्र दाखिल करते समय इस घोषणा पत्र के फोरमैट का प्रोफार्मा दे दिया जाए और उसकी रसीद प्राप्त कर ली जाये और उसकी रसीद नामांकन पत्र के साथ लगा दी जाये व उससे कहा जाये कि यह घोषणा पत्र संवीक्षा शुरू होने से पहले दें। आयोग ने यह भी निर्णय लिया है

कि जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी (पंचायत) जो कि उपायुक्त भी है यह सुनिश्चित करें कि ग्रामसचिव या खण्ड विकास एवं पंचायत अधिकारी या अन्य कोई अधिकारी गांव में सभी को चुनाव के नामांकन पत्र भरने की तिथि से बहुत पहले, सूचित करें कि किस-किस के विरुद्ध सैक्शन 175 सब सैक्शन (1) के क्लोज (आई) में दर्शित कौन-2 से ड्यूज बकाया है या अन्य राशि रिकवरेबल है और वह लम्बित बकाया राशि की सूचि और रिकवरेबल राशि रिटर्निंग अधिकारी को भेज दे ताकि रिटर्निंग अधिकारी अगर कोई ओब्जेक्शन करते हैं तो उन पर विचार कर सकें।

आयोग के यह भी ध्यान में आया है कि बहुत से उम्मीदवार हरियाणा पंचायती राज अधिनियम 1994 के सैक्शन 175 के सब सैक्शन (1) के क्लोज (क्यू) के अनुसार आयोग्य है लेकिन फिर भी उनका नामांकन पत्र स्वीकार करके उनका नामांकन पत्र स्वीकार होने के बाद वे चुनाव भी जीत जाते हैं या निर्विरोध चुन लिये जाते हैं और बाद में फिर शिकायतें आती हैं तो की छानबीन करके उनकी सीटों को खाली घोषित कर दिया जाता है। बहुत से उम्मीदवारों को इस प्रावधान का ज्ञान नहीं होता कि अगर उनके दो से ज्यादा बच्चे हैं और उनमें से किसी एक का जन्म 22 अप्रैल 1995 के बाद हुआ है तो वह उपरोक्त प्रावधान के अनुसार पंच, सरपंच, सदस्य पंचायत समिति या जिला परिषद् नहीं बन सकता (इसलिये आयोग ने यह भी निर्णय लिया कि नामांकन पत्र के साथ या संवीक्षा से पहले उम्मीदवार से एक घोषणा पत्र ले लिया जाये कि उनका नामांकन पत्र भरने की तिथि को उसके दो से ज्यादा बच्चे नहीं हैं जिसमें किसी का भी जन्म 22 अप्रैल 1995 के बाद हुआ हो) इसलिये नामांकन पत्र भरते समय इस घोषणा पत्र का प्राफार्मा उम्मीदवार को दे दिया जाये और उसकी रसीद प्राप्त करके नामांकन पत्र के साथ लगा दी जाये व उम्मीदवार को कहा जाये कि यह घोषणा पत्र नामांकन पत्र के साथ या संवीक्षा से पहले रिटर्निंग अधिकारी को दे दिया जाये।

रिटर्निंग अधिकारी को यह भी निर्देश दिये जाये कि इस प्रकार के उपरोक्त दो घोषणा पत्र देने के बाद जहां नामांकन पत्र फाईल किया जाना है उसके नोटिस बोर्ड पर उम्मीदवारों की सूचना के लिये इन घोषणा पत्रों की जानकारी देने के लिये नोटिस लगायें। जिला निर्वाचन अधिकारी (पंचायत) से यह भी अनुरोध है कि इन दो घोषणा पत्रों को प्रस्तुत करने के बारे में पूरा प्रचार भी किया जाये।

Aggarwal of Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh on the subject cited above and a copy of which is also addressed to you. In this judgement the Hon'ble High Court has issued a direction to Respondent Nos. 1 to 4 to hold the election to the office of President and Vice President of zila Parishad, Fatehabad in accordance with law forthwith, to say, not later than one month of the receipt of a copy of this order.

1. The Hon'ble High Court in para 3 of its order dated 5th April, 2001 has mentioned about its decision in another case titled as CWP No. 6702 of 2000, Upinder Kaur and others Vs. State of Haryana and others, which was decided by the Hon'ble Court on 22nd December, 2000, (copy enclosed) wherein an indetical issue was involved. The Hon'ble High Court has also held that the procedure provided under Rule 39 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 as mandatory in nature. In the writ petition No. 6702 of 2000(O&M) in the case of Upinder Kaur and others Vs. State of Haryana and others, decided by the Hon'ble Court on 22nd December, 2000, the Hon'ble High Court has held (at page 10) that the manner of voting at the election is provided in Chapter IX (POLL AND VOTING FOR ELECTION) of the Rules (The Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994) aforesaid. The provisions for election of President and Vice President of zila Parishad has been provided in Section 121 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 and also in Rules 76 and 77 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994.

2. Rule 39 of the Rules ibid provides that at every election, where a poll is taken, votes shall be given by ballot in the manner hereinafter provided and no votes shall be received by proxy. So the provision of Rule 40 and the guidelines issued by the Commission in "Panchayat Election 2000, circulated by State Election Commission, compilation of Instructions (For Returning Officer/Assisant Returning Officer) at page 128 to 134 about the use of Ballot Box should be followed strictly.

The Rule 41 of 1994 Rules ibid provides about the form of ballot paper for election to the office of Panches, Sarpanches, Members Panchayat Samitis and Members Zila Parishads. No form for the ballot paper for election to the office of President and Vice President of zila Parishad have been prescribed in the Rules and in the instructions issued by the Commission.

Similarly no form of nomination paper for election to the office of President and Vice President of zila Parishad has been prescribed in the 1994 Act or the 1994 Rules or in the instructions earlier issued by the Commission.

3. Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred under Article 243 K of the Constitution of India and Section 212 of Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 (Haryana Act No. 11 of 1994) and all other powers enabling it in this behalf, the State Election Commission, Haryana hereby directs as follows:-

 4. The Representation of People (Third Amendment) Act, 2002 (Central Act No.72) of 2002
 5. Judgement dated 13th March, 2003 of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in W.P. (Civil) Nos. 490, 509 and 515 of 2002.
 6. Election Commission of India's order No.31/ER/2003/JS-II, dated the 27th March, 2003.

Whereas, the superintendence, direction and control of the preparation of electoral rolls for, and conduct of, all elections to the Panchayats and Municipalities are vested in the State Election Commission as per provisions of Article 243K and Article 243ZA of the Constitution of India.

2. And whereas, the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, in its judgement (Ist cited) dated 2nd November, 2000 in Writ Petition No.7257 of 1999 (Association for Democratic Reforms Versus Union of India and Others) held that for making a right choice by electors in regard to the candidate at the election, it was essential that the past of the candidate should not be kept in dark, as it was not in the interest of the democracy and well being of the country and directed the Election Commission of India to secure to voters the following information pertaining to each of the candidates seeking elections to Parliament and to the State Legislatures and the parties they represent :-

- (1) Whether the candidate is accused of any offence(s) punishable with imprisonment? If so, the details thereof;
- (2) Assets possessed by a candidate, his or her spouse and dependent relatives;
- (3) Facts giving insight to candidate's competence, capacity and suitability for acting as parliamentarian or legislators including details of his/her educational qualifications;

- (4) Information which the Election Commission considers necessary for judging the capacity and capability of the political party fielding the candidate for election to Parliament or the State Legislature;

3. And whereas, the Union of India filed an appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India (Civil Appeal No.7178 of 2001—Union of India Vs. Association for Democratic Reforms and Another) contending that the High Court ought to have directed the writ petitioners to approach the Parliament for appropriate amendments to the law instead of directing the Election Commission of India to implement the same;

4. And whereas, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, in its judgement (2nd cited) dated 2nd May, 2002, has held as follows :-

- i) The jurisdiction of the Election Commission is wide enough to include all powers necessary for smooth conduct of elections and the word 'elections' is used in a wide sense to include the entire process of election which consists of several stages and embraces many steps.
- ii) The limitation on plenary character of powers is when the Parliament or State Legislature has made a valid law relating to or in connection with elections, the Commission is required to act in conformity with the said provisions. In case where law is silent, Art 324 is a reservoir of power to act for the avowed purpose of having free and fair election. Constitution has taken care of leaving scope for exercise of residuary power by the Commission in its own right as a creature of the Constitution in the infinite variety of situations that may emerge from time to time in a large democracy, as every contingency could not be foreseen or anticipated by the enacted laws or the rules. By issuing necessary directions the Commission can fill the vacuum till there is a legislation on the subject. In Kanhiya Lal Omar's case (AIR 1986 SC 111) the court construed the expressions 'the superintendence, direction and control' in art 324(1) and held that a direction may mean an order issued to particular individual or a precept which may have to follow and it may be specific or a general order and such phrase should be construed liberally empowering the Election Commission to issue such orders.
- iii) The word 'elections' includes the entire process of election which consists of several stages and it embraces many steps, some of which have an important bearing on the process of choosing a candidate. Fair election contemplates disclosure by the candidate of his past including the assets held by him so as to give a proper choice to the candidate (sic) (elector) according to his thinking and opinion. As stated earlier, in Common Cause case [(1986) 2 SCC 752], the court dealt with a contention that elections in the country are fought with the help of money power which is gathered from black sources and once elected to power, it becomes easy to collect tons of black money, which is used for retaining power and for re-election. If on affidavit a candidate is required to disclose the assets held by him at the time of election, voter can decide whether he could be re-elected even in case where he has collected tons of money.

- iv) To maintain the purity of elections and in particular to bring transparency in the process of election, the Commission can ask the candidates about the expenditure incurred by the political parties and this transparency in the process of election would include transparency of a candidate who seeks election or re-election. In a democracy the electoral process has a strategic role. The little man of this country would have basic elementary right to know full particulars of a candidate who is to represent him in Parliament where laws to bind his liberty and property may be enacted.
- v) The right to get information in democracy is recognised all through out and it is natural right flowing from the concept of democracy. At this stage, we would refer to Art 19(1) and (2) of the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights which is as under :-
 - (i) Every one shall have the right to hold opinions without interference.
 - (ii) Everyone shall have the right to freedom of expression; this right shall include freedom to seek, receive and impart information and ideas of all kinds, regardless of frontiers, either orally, in writing or in print, in the form of art, or through any other media of his choice.
- vi) From cumulative reading of plethora of decisions of this court as referred to, it is clear that if the field meant for legislature and executive is left unoccupied detrimental to the public interest, this court would have ample jurisdiction under Art 32 read with Arts 141 and 142 of the Constitution to issue necessary directions to the executive to subserve public interest.
- vii) Under our Constitution, Art 19(1) (a) provides for freedom of speech and expression. Voters' speech and expression in case of election would include casting of votes that is to say, voter speaks out or expresses by casting vote. For this purpose, information about the candidate to be selected is must. Voter's (little man-citizen's) right to know antecedents including criminal past of his candidate contesting election with MP or MLA is much more fundamental and basic for survival of democracy. The little man may think over before making his choice of electing law breakers as law makers'.

5. And whereas, the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in its aforesaid judgement (2nd cited) dated 2nd May, 2002, has directed as follows :-

"The Election Commission is directed to call for information on sworn affidavit by issuing necessary order in exercise of its power under Art 324 of the Constitution of India from each candidate seeking election to Parliament or a State legislature as a necessary part of his nomination paper, furnishing therein, information on the following aspects in relation to his/her candidature :-

- 1) Whether the candidate is convicted/acquitted/discharged of any criminal offence in the past; if any, whether he is punished with imprisonment or fine?
- 2) Prior to six months of filling of nomination, whether the candidate is accused in any pending case of any offence punishable with imprisonment for two years or more, and in which charge is framed or cognizance is taken by the court of law, if so, the details thereof.
- 3) The assets (immovable, movable, bank balances etc) of a candidate and of his/her spouse and that of dependants.
- 4) Liabilities, if any, particularly whether there are any over dues of any public financial institution or government dues.
- 5) The educational qualifications of the candidate.”

6. And whereas, for implementation of the above-mentioned order of the Supreme Court dated 2nd May 2002 the Election of India has issued an Order No.3/ER/2002/JS-II/Vol-III, dated 28th June, 2002 (3rd cited) in exercise of its plenary powers under Article 324 of the Constitution of India directing the every candidate filing nomination paper for any election to the Council of States, House of the People, Legislative Assembly of a State or the Legislative Council of a State to furnish information required by the Supreme Court as stated above by means of a sworn affidavit in the format appended to the said order, as a necessary part of the nomination paper. Thereupon, the Government of India promulgated The Representation of People (Amendment) Ordinance, 2002 (Ordinance No.4 of 2002) which was subsequently replaced by the Representation of the People (Third amendment) Act, 2002 (4th cited) which brought about the following Legislative changes namely:-

- 1) Section 33A was inserted requiring every candidate to furnish information, apart from any information which he is required to furnish, under the Representation of the People Act, 1951 or the Rules made thereunder in his nomination paper delivered under sub-Section (1) of Section 33, as to whether:-
 - i) he is accused of any offence punishable with imprisonment for two years or more in a pending case in which a charge has been framed by the Court of competent jurisdiction;
 - (ii) he has been convicted of any offence (other than any offence referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), or covered in sub-section (3), of Section 8) and sentenced to imprisonment for one year or more.
- 2) Section 33B has been inserted, stating that no candidate is liable to disclose or furnish any such, information in respect of his election which is not required to be disclosed or furnished under the Representation of the People Act, 1951 or the Rules made thereunder, notwithstanding anything contained in any judgement, decree or order of any Court or any direction, order or any other instruction issued by the Election Commission of India.
- 3) Section 75A has been inserted to provide for declaring the assets and liabilities to the Presiding Officer of the concerned

- House after election within ninety days from the date of taking oath or affirmation as Member.
- 4) No requirement for giving information on educational qualifications is provided.
 - 5) Penalty has been provided for giving false information in the affidavit.

7. And whereas, the Representation of the People (Third Amendment Act) 2002 has been questioned in W.P.Nos.490,509 and 515 of 2002 before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. In its judgement dated 13th March, 2003 (5th cited), the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India held that :

- (i) Section 33B is unconstitutional;
- (ii) The information required to be provided in respect of criminal antecedents in the newly inserted section 33A is reasonably adequate to safeguard the right to information vested in the voter/citizen.
- (iii) The provisions made in newly inserted sections 75A regarding declaration of assets and liabilities of the elected candidate to the Speaker or Chairman of the House has failed to effectuate the right to information and freedom of expression of the voters/citizens and that Parliament ought to have made a provision for furnishing this information at the time of filing nomination;
- (iv) Failure to provide for disclosure of educational qualifications does not, in practicable terms, infringe the freedom of expression; and
- (v) The Election of India has to issue revised instructions to ensure implementation of the newly inserted section 33A and the earlier orders dated 28th June, 2002 of the Election Commission of India relating to disclosure of assets and liabilities which will still hold good and continue to be operate. However, in so far as verification of assets and liabilities by means of summary enquiry and rejection of nomination paper on the ground of furnishing wrong information or suppressing material information should not be enforced.

8. And whereas, following the Judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 13.03.2003, the Election Commission of India issued revised No.31/ER/2003/JS-II, dated 27th March, 2003 (6th cited) orders, the substance of which is as follows:-

- (i) Every candidate at the time of filing his nomination paper for any election to the Council of States, House of the People, Legislative Assembly of a State or the Legislative Council of a State having such a Council, shall furnish full and complete information in regard to the matters specified by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in an affidavit, the format of which is annexed to the order.
- (ii) The said affidavit by each candidate shall be duly sworn before a Magistrate of the First Class or a Notary Public or a Commissioner of Oaths appointed by the High Court of the State concerned.
- (iii) Non-furnishing of the affidavit by any candidate shall be considered to be violation of the order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the nomination of the candidate concerned shall be liable to rejection by the Returning Officer at the time of scrutiny of nominations for such non-furnishing of the affidavit.

- (iv) The information so furnished by each candidate in the aforesaid affidavit shall be disseminated by the respective Returning Officers by displaying a copy of the affidavit on the notice board of his office and also by making the copies thereof available freely and liberally to all other candidates and the representatives of the print and electronic media.
- (v) If any rival candidate furnishes information to the contrary by means of a duly sworn affidavit, then such affidavit of the rival candidate shall also be disseminated along with the affidavit of the candidate concerned in the manner directed above.
- (vi) It is also clarified that the earlier direction contained in para 14(4) of its earlier order dated 28th June, 2002, in so far as verification of assets and liabilities by means of summary enquiry and rejection of nomination paper on the ground of furnishing wrong information or suppressing material information is not enforceable in pursuance of the order dated 13th March, 2003 of the Apex Court.

9. And whereas, though the aforesaid two judgements of the Supreme Court were delivered in the context of securing to the voters the right to information with regard to the candidates seeking elections to the Legislative Assembly of a State or the Legislative Council of a State having such Council and the Parliament, the spirit thereof equally applies to the voters exercising their franchise in elections to Rural and Urban Local Bodies also, which have been conferred with Constitutional status. The democratic process should be common to all levels of electoral offices in the pyramid starting from the Gram Sabha to Lok Sabha. The Commonality of the powers between the State Election Commission and the Election Commission of India can be seen from the fact that Article 243K is exactly Parametria with Article 324 of the Constitution of India. In the interest of purity of elections to the Panchayats and Municipalities, the State Election Commissions of Uttaranchal, Maharashtra, Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh States and Union Territories of Delhi and Chandigarh have already implemented the aforementioned orders of the Supreme Court of India for conduct the elections to Panchayats and Urban Local Bodies. In view of this, the State Election Commission, Haryana decided that the orders of the Supreme Court of India should be made applicable to the elections to rural and urban local bodies also in the State of Haryana.

10. STATE ELECTION COMMISSION, HARYANA
S.C.O. NO.16-17, SECTOR-20 D, CHANDIGARH.

No. SEC/4E-III./2003/10022-40

Dated:23.10.2003

To

All the Deputy Commissioners-cum-
District Election Officers(Panchayat)
in the State of Haryana.

Subject: Criminalisation of Politics—Participation of Criminals in the electoral process as candidates—disqualification on conviction for offences—effect of appeal and bail regarding.

Sir/Madam,

Please refer to Commission's letter No.SEC/E-III/97/14071-89, dated 29.09.1997 on the subject of Criminalisation of Politics—Participation of Criminals in the electoral process as candidates—disqualification on conviction for offences—effect of appeal and bail regarding. Under this letter of 29.09.1997 referred to above, in which you were requested that the candidate be asked by the Returning Officers to furnish information under Section-8 of the Representation of Peoples Act, 1951 and sub-clause (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 175 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994. The proforma was revised as per instructions issued by the Commission's letter No.SEC/E-III/98/2522-40, dated 13.02.1998.

In this regard I have been directed to request you that Form-4 for the Nomination papers under Rule 26 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 has been revised by the Government vide its notification No.S.O. 93/HA 11/94/S.209/2001, dated 04.07.2001 in which the declaration to be made by the candidate about all the disqualifications mentioned in Section 175 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 including that of clause (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of Sub-Section (1) have been provided.

Further the Commission has also issued an order No.SEC/4E-III/2003/8831, dated 06.10.2003 under which the candidate is required to file an Affidavit in the proforma attached with this order alongwith nomination paper. In this affidavit under Commission's order dated 06.10.2003, the information about all convictions of criminal offences, acquittal or discharged in the criminal cases and pending cases of criminal offences are required to be mentioned. In view of above mentioned two developments, now there seems to be no need to furnish the information in the Proforma for furnishing information under Section 8 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 and sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 175 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 by every candidate at an election to Panch/Sarpanch/Member Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad under the Commission's earlier letters dated 29.09.1997 and 13.02.1998 referred to above.

2. I have also been directed to invite your attention to the order No.SEC/E-III/2003/8831, dated 06/10/2003 issued by the Commission, requiring a candidate to file an Affidavit for disclosure of information about the conviction and acquittal /discharged in criminal cases, and details of pending criminal cases in which charge has been framed or cognizance has been taken by the Court and details of the assets, liability and educational qualification of the candidate.

3. I have also been directed to invite your attention to the fact that despite declaration made by the candidate that he does not suffer from the disqualifications under clause (q) of sub-section (1) of Section 175 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994. It has been noticed that a large number of candidates who have more than two living children and one or more of them was/were born after 22.04.1995 have been elected to as Panches & Sarpanches of Gram Panchayats and Members of Panchayat Samitis & Zila Parishads. These persons in fact were disqualified to be chosen for being a member of the Panchayati Raj Institutions. Resultantly, when complaints are received against such elected members and Sarpanches of Gram Panchayat and Members of Panchayat Samitis & Zila Parishads. The proceedings for disqualification under Section 175 and 177 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 are initiated by the Deputy Commissioner and Director Panchayats. As only declarations are made by such persons and Affidavits are not filed by the candidates about the disqualification under clause (q) of sub-section (1) of Section 175 of the Act ibid, the penal action for wrong declaration or suppression of information in the matter is not initiated against such persons. In order to enforce the provisions of clause (q) of sub-section (1) of Section 175 of the Act ibid in more effective manner and also to initiate penal action against those who furnish wrong information in this regard, it is necessary that the candidate be required to file Affidavits in the matter. It is, therefore, decided that the candidates should also file an Affidavit regarding having more than two living children or not alongwith the nomination paper.

4. Under these revised instructions for the Panchayat elections to be held henceafter, while supplying the nomination papers, the Returning Officer shall inform the intending candidates in the manner prescribed in Annexure-I in the format enclosed herewith that he should file an Affidavit in Annexure-II in the format enclosed, that he does not suffer from the disqualification under clause (q) of sub-section (1) of Section 175 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 i.e. he does not have more than two living children or has more than two living children but one or more of them was/were not born after 22.04.1995 and another Affidavit in Annexure-III, in the format enclosed disclosing the information about the convictions in criminal cases, acquittal/discharged of criminal offences, pending criminal cases, details of immovable & movable properties, assets & liabilities and educational qualifications. The Returning Officer shall give copies of the Annexures II and III referred to above, to the intending candidates alongwith the nomination paper, so that the candidate may file these two above said Affidavits alongwith the nomination paper to be submitted to the Returning Officer.

5. On receipt of the nomination paper, if it is found that a candidate has not file any of the two above said Affidavits i.e. Affidavit in Annexure-II or Affidavit in Annexure-III or both these Affidavits, then the Returning Officer shall issue a notice as in Annexure-IV in the format enclosed, to the person delivering the nomination papers that the candidate should file the Affidavit(s) immediately and positively before 10.00 A.M. of the date of scrutiny of the nomination papers, failing which the nomination paper of the candidate shall be rejected.

6. On receipt of the nomination paper, the Returning Officer shall also write to the candidate as prescribed in Annexure-V in the format enclosed, informing him about the serial number in the nomination register at which his name has been entered, receipt number vide which security received and the date, time and place of the scrutiny of the nomination papers as prescribed in Annexure-V.

Yours faithfully,

(BY ORDER AND IN THE NAME OF THE STATE ELECTION COMMISSIONER)
